

BABYLON

BY BILL GRIBBLE

The last world power was Rome, first Pagan, then Papal. Her dominating power lasted for two thousand years. (200B.C. to A.D. 1800) A book containing several volumes could be written about this domination and it possibly has. I'm not wanting to get into that at this time. However I believe that the city of Babylon mentioned in the book of Revelations is referring to the Papacy. It doesn't take much reading about Papal Rome to see what I talking about.

In Rev. 18:4 "AND I HEARD ANOTHER VOICE FROM HEAVEN, SAYING, COME OUT OF HER, MY PEOPLE, THAT YE BE NOT PARTAKERS OF HER SINS, AND THAT YE RECEIVE NOT OF HER PLAGUES." If Babylon is the prophetic name of the Papacy, I believe it is. Then this seems to be a forecast of the protestant reformation. The sound of Martin Luthers call, in the 16th century, a mighty exodus and break-away from the Papal fold began its spread over Germany, Scandanavia, England, Scotland, United States, and Canada. Out of it came modern era of open Bible, liberty of conscience, freedom of speech, popular education, and government of the people, by the people, and for the people.

Rome fell but came to life again, as a world power, in the name of the church. The Popes of Rome were the heirs and successors of the Caesars of Rome.

Interims between world powers, when the nations are ruled by a number of Governments, in round numbers, "10" As the ten horns of Daniel 7:7 seem to have predicted the Kingdoms into which the Roman Empire broke up, so the words in Rev.17:12 may picture another Interim before the rise of the final antichrist. There has been no one power dominating the world since then. Napolian tried it, The Kaiser tried it, Hitler tried it, The Russian Communist tried it, and may still be trying through the United Nations, at least the powers behind the United Nations are trying it.

What Martin Luther started in the 16th century are the things that we enjoy today. Yet these things, Our freedoms, and privileges, guaranteed by our Founding Fathers, In our Constitution & Bill of Rights, are in jeopardy. It is not only our right, but it is our duty, as Christians, and as citizens to uphold and defend these rights, by any means we have available.

I believe that a lot can be done to change the direction that the United States is presently going. We must let our leaders know that we care and that we are praying for them. We must also prepare ourselves for the holocaust that is soon coming. Prayer and involvement can do wonders and change a lot things. It has before and it can again. We must get involved and get others involved. The revolutionary war wasn't won with guns alone.

"Come Out of Her My People" When I wrote earlier I spoke of the Papacy as being Babylon. I think that this is so, but I can't help but believe that " Babylon The Great Harlot " may also be Heavens name for Apostate Christendom as a whole. Here in America we think of ourselves as having the purest form of Christianity since the days of primitive persecutions. There are thousands of truly devoted Christians and Pastors and Leaders with Faith and Loyalty that is totally unquestionable, Yet When we look around we see our Churches are Humanized, full of Worldliness, Indifference, Halfheartedness, Pleasure Seeking, all kinds of Evil Indulgence, so much Unbelief in the Pulpit, so little of Gods Word in the preaching, so little of Christ in the services, so much lifeless Formalism, so much Professionalism, so little of the real Spirit of Christ, so much Ignorance of Gods Word, and such Indifference to it in the Pulpit. I think at this time I should bring up the fact of how the Fourth Commandment is being Disregarded through almost all of Christianity. Could I be mistaken in believing that it is possible that the Church as a whole has not yet come out of its Great Apostasy? When Martin Luther came out of the Roman Church I'm afraid that maybe he brought to many of the Popes rituals and traditions with him, at least they have been adopted by the Church.

"Scarlet" Originally the Devils color.

"Scarlet" color of the Beast, and the Harlot, and also of the Dragon. It is the color of the Papacy. The Papal Throne is Scarlet and it is borne by twelve men clad in Scarlet. The Cardinals hats and robes are Scarlet. It is the color of Atheistic Communism: They are commonly spoken of as Reds, Red Army, Red Territory, the Red Square in Moscow.

The new world order is common talk now days, even in our own Government. Bush spoke of it, Clinton has spoke of it, many others speak of it. The new world order is one world Government and the United Nations will head the one world Government. The United Nation Manifesto is the same as Atheistic Communism. The Constitution of the United States will have to be eliminated for this to transpire and our Government has been working hard to do this. There are some in office that would totally get rid of it now if they could but fortunately not all are on that team. Bob Dole is every bit as bad as Bill Clinton and it disturbs me greatly to think of him getting in to the Presidents office. He has the same agenda as Clinton (I believe) and He would have the full support of the Congress.

The Scarlet Beast that Babylon the Harlot is sitting on is the eighth king. He was one of the seven and was dead but will rule again. His ten horns are ten kings and they will sign a treaty with him and they will wage war with the Lamb and the Lamb will conquer them; for he is Lord over all lords and King of kings, and his people are the called and chosen and faithful ones.

This is going to happen soon, I believe and the events are already building up today. May God have mercy on us.

The Scarlet Beast, I believe is the United Nations and their goal is to place the entire world under the domination of International Communism.

Then we come to the Lamb Beast. I believe that the Lamb Beast is America. It has two horns, One being the United States, The other being Canada. The United States has been a world power of great authority for many years now. She had great influence in the promotion of the United Nations. She has certainly gave her power to the United Nations or may I say the Scarlet Beast. The United States has given extremely large sums of money to the U.N. effort as well as arms and war machines and now Clinton has turned over our military to the U.N.

A nation that once was a strong Constitutional Republic has become so liberal that it has slid into Socialism. The people seem to be asleep or at least unaware of what is going on around them. Their personal freedoms are being destroyed and they seem to care less. They are so skillfully being distracted that they are totally unaware of any thing that the Government is doing. They elect officials because they are swauve and devanair, pretty or handsome, without any consideration if they can do the job or not, or what their goals and plans for the country are. like a candidate that had been involved with drugs, money laundering, a draft dodging coward, a traitor going to an enemy country to demonstrate against his own country and his abuse to women is appalling!! He uses women like toilet paper then throws them away. I can't help but wonder if he thinks it makes him look more masculine. Well it didn't work. He's still a wimp and dominated over by his wife. I was recently told that I was wrong about that and maybe I am, I don't know. I was told that it all started when at a social event early in his career when he turned to Hillary and said " Can I go to the bathroom?" I shouldn't say things like that I'll be accused of being a hate group. Several Churches in the northeast were simply questioning Bills morals and they lost their tax exemption. They said that they were political. Yet Jesse Jackson passed the offering plate in churches for campaign contributions and that was OK. I'm still trying to figure where they draw the line on issues like that.

The U.S., the U.N., the Papacy all come crying PEACE, PEACE, PEACE. It seems PEACE at any cost and as long as you do it their way and as long as you submit to their authority. I don't mind submitting to authority so long as it doesn't include making me a slave. I've never been a slave and I don't intend to ever become one.

The BIBLE says that the Lamb Beast will make the people to bow down to the Scarlet Beast. To bow down to any thing is to submit yourself to it or them. Today a young American is on trial, by a military court, for not bowing down or submitting to the beast or to the U.N., since then they have changed the U.S. Military law about submitting yourself to the authority of the U.N. If they had to change the law then how can they justify the court martial of Michael New.

The Lamb Beast also called the False Profit it is said will draw down fire from the sky to show its power. I think that to drop two atomic bombs on two major cities causing complete and total destruction would certainly qualify to fill this statement. Have you seen any of the ads, paid for with our tax dollars, promoting the U.N. They have been run on T.V. and in magazines.

The mark of the Beast! Now this is an interesting one. Some folks believe that Sunday worship is the mark of the beast and I agree that it is a mark of the beast and the beast has other marks as well. However I don't believe that this is The Mark of the beast mentioned in Revelations. With the coming about of the new world order, or the completion of the new world power, a new money system must be created. It will be a cashless system using at first a plastic card then later a micro chip placed under the skin of the hand or the forehead. When this is enacted cash will cease to exist and then you will no longer be able to buy or sell without this mark, or this chip. The card and the chip have already been perfected except for control. The chip will be easier to control than the card. Early stages of this are already in use world wide. I use a company money transfer card or bank card now to buy fuel for my truck and many of you use credit cards to do business with every day. These are not the mark, they do serve the purpose of softening us up and preparing us for the change over. When the time comes many will accept this new system without complaint and only a few will refuse to accept this new system, or the mark, these will be the Chosen and the Faithful who are awake and alert and waiting and watching for the return of our LORD, who is LORD of all the Lords, and KING of Kings.

5

I have watched the erosion of our liberties and of our rights for many years now. I have seen our education system change to the point that it is hardly recognizable as even being what we started out with. They are continually making new laws designed to bring us more and more under their control. They are working especially hard to take our arms away from us. I remember something that J.J. Johnson once said during an interview, "If my ancestors had of had guns they would have never been made slaves" This is very true and it is extremely difficult for the Lamb Beast to make me to bow to the Scarlet Beast if I'm standing there holding a rifle.

A real interesting point I was just thinking about is back in 1929 (I believe that was the right year) they had to change the Constitution to make it illegal to sell the drug alcohol. If they had to make an amendment to the constitution to prohibit alcohol then where did they get the authority to make it illegal to sell the other drugs that were legal at that time???? Since the constitution provides that no state can make a law to surpass the constitution, then why do we have to register our firearms and why do we have to have a license to carry when the constitution so clearly states our right to own and to bear arms??????? That by the way is a right and not a privilege.

The constitution provides that no state constitution or law or treaty foreign or domestic made by state or U.S. can surpass the constitution. Then how is it possible for us to have this treaty with the U.N.???? What can I say about our IRS and our current tax system? It's illegal. I don't believe any more can be said. If everyone were united in one cause to correct the situation a perfect method would be to refuse to give the Feral Government any more money till they came back under control. Please do not change the word Feral. Feral means something that was domestic or tame that has gone wild, such as a feral dog or a feral cat. Complete refusal to fund the Feral Government in its tyrannic escapades would surely bring them back under control. It would be far more efficient than guns could ever be yet it would be almost impossible to organize the sheeple to do such a task.

I believe that we are about to face some of the hardest times that has ever fallen on the U.S. and the world. People in America have been living soft for many, many years now and most don't know how to provide for themselves any longer. Many can't even build a fire much less cook on it if they did have it built. Most rural folks will do quite well, but they must provide food for themselves and it should be food that doesn't require refrigeration. Frozen food is great but you must be prepared for long term loss of power. Now that you have provided yourself with plenty of food to sustain yourself for at least a year you must prepare to protect it. You need to have at least two guns a rifle and a pistol, more if you can get them and lots of ammunition. There are going to be a lot of people who were too occupied with other things such as football and a can of beer to be bothered with preparing themselves, now they are hungry and they have guns and they will try to take what you have. The Feral Government has already made laws against putting food back so you will also have to protect yourself from them, those alphabet soup boys from Washington. You need a plan and some practice to protect yourself. The United Nation already has troops in this country and they are practicing how to break into your home and take your guns and extra food. Oh by the way don't forget to put away some water, lots of water, you'll need it.

The new world order is already in place and operating as we speak. There are still a few loose ends that still have to be brought together, but the new world order is in place and working. It is only a matter of time and we will be under the complete domination of International Communism. Yes it can be stopped. First everyone will have to wake up and pay attention. Neighbors and fellow Americans, I said that you are going to have to wake up and pay attention.... Your country, Your home, the United States Of America is being destroyed around you. Many laws are being passed that are outside the Constitution and they are being enforced. Many innocent citizens are being harassed, terrorized, jailed, and KILLED by the alphabet soup boys from Washington.
(CIA,FBI,BATF,and Federal Marshals)

The passing of laws like Clintons anti-terrorist bill leaves it open for these Federal Terrorist, the alphabet soup boys, to work openly outside the Constitution. There have already been INNOCENT citizens jailed and held without bail being set or allowed as well as other citizens being terrorized and harassed all with the backing and the support of this illegal Law. It is illegal because it takes away our rights granted to us by the Constitution of the U.S. They were able to pass a law like this because of the mentality of why should a terrorist have any rights. Now they are not using the law to catch terrorist, but rather to harass, terrorize, and jail innocent citizens. The way I see it the only terrorist problem that we have ever had in this country is the one created by our own government. We have always had laws against terrorism, murder, robbery, and many more things and we don't need more law and more bureaucracy. All this is doing is serving to take our rights away and break down and destroy our Constitution. I guess that all these things are necessary if you want change but I don't want change, I want things to be the way they were for the first two hundred years. I guess that I am a conservative type person.

Conservative n : one who adheres to traditional methods or views.

Libertarian : one who upholds the principles of liberty

Socialism : a theory of social organization based on government ownership, management, or control of the means of production and the distribution and exchange of goods.

I see that I also am a libertarian. But I come up very short when it comes to something like socialism. I don't like words like ownership, management, and control. Please notice how they all sound like slavery. If this is so good then why does it have to be forced on people. I bought a tee shirt yesterday, it reads "I'd rather be dead than to live on my knees" Thank you, I'll wear it too!

Would you like to read something interesting. Try Dept. of State publication # 7277, Disarmament series 5, Released Sept. 1961. It will be reprinted soon in the GMM newsletter. I want to quote an exert from the last page, Stage Three. "In stage 111 progressive controlled disarmament and continuously developing principles and procedures of international law would proceed to a point where no state would have the military power to challenge the progressively strengthened U.N. peace forces and all international disputes would be settled according to the agreed principles of international conduct." I would like to add that the word state mentioned above means country, as this is an international document. A statement like this is certainly an indication of complete U.N. control. Once we get there, I don't see any way at all to recover or to get out from under the control of the U.N. The one thing that has me concerned is WHAT ABOUT RED CHINA???? There is nothing said about China in the paper. This would indicate to me that she is no problem since she is already RED Communist. Or what else???

The Book of Revelations states that a two hundred million man army will march out of the east and across the Euphrates River. Since they are selling and not buying under this most favored nation agreement that has been granted them I can easily see how they could arm a two hundred million man army. With their population, Hey !!! They don't even have to arm the women or children or even the old men.

This is a very interesting situation. Do I worry about Red China? Do I worry about becoming a slave to the U.N. and living under International Communism? Do I just kneel down and praise God because the Lord is coming back soon?

I remember a scripture from the Word Of God. He said to fear not the one that could take my life, but rather to fear the one that can take my life and take my soul.

I think that I'll trust in God and the return of the Lord. While I'm waiting I'm going to store some food and water, I'm going to clean all my guns and check my ammunition. In the meanwhile I praise God that the return of the Lord is not far away, I also pray that America will wake up before it is too late. I pray for all of our leaders in this country that they will see the error of their ways and turn to the Lord. I do not want to have to kill any of their followers and it matters not if they kill me a million more will take my place.

Within the soul of America is truly the freedom of mind and spirit.....Herbert Hoover

This must never be removed, Too many Americans have died to preserve what we have and as long as I have a breath left in me it will be to help to preserve what they have died for.

I'm sure that you have noticed the similarity between the different Beast described in the Bible. Well it's not a coincident or some kind of copy or mistake. The similarity is because the same power is behind all the world powers since Egypt was a world power. It is the same power that is behind the world banks, including the Federal Reserve Bank. It is the same power behind the U.S. Government. It is the same power behind the United Nations, which originated from the League of Nations. Same power behind the Kaiser, Hitler, Napoleon, Mau, Stalin, Lennin and the list goes on and on. This power is a follower of that old dragon They are the wealthiest people on earth. They have knowledge that surpasses anyone on earth and they have POWER. They are mentioned in the Bible, even the Quran tells of them, as well as many very old documents. They were called Magi or Wise Men and they were the money changers, Which were the first bankers.

I have read several articles that have named names such as Bilderbergers, Knights of Templar and some others that are said to be this power, especially the Knights of Templar. They are said to be the originators of many secret societies such as Freemasons, Knights of Malta, Knights of Beneficiense, Cathari, Hospitallers, White Lotus, Posicrucian Order, Tamany, Order of the Brotherhood, Order of the Odd Fellows, Order of the New Templar, German Order, Swindonborgian Order, (later they called themselves a church), Masonic Order and not last nor least The League of Nations. The League of Nations is the forerunner of the United Nations.

We are truly living under Socialism today in the United States. Control is the main objective of the movement. The U. S. Government has no power to set speed limits in the states, Yet do you remember federally mandated speed limit of 55 Mph a few years back? And all the states complied. At first some of the states resisted, but pressure was brought to bear in areas that hurt and all the states complied. Small, Insignificant, Yes, but all the states complied, one more liberty gone. That's how a lot of our liberties have gone. Just like they were dropped into a big bowl of jello, smoothly, quietly, they just disappeared and no one paid any attention. Our liberties are being taken one chip at a time.

YES! The snowball is rolling! It's going down hill and rolling faster and faster and it's getting larger and larger. Progressive little thing ain't it? Reminds me of a song that came out back years ago. One line read "Like a fast motorcycle with the devil in the seat running 90 miles an hour down a dead end street". At first the snowball was small and had no weight and it had to be pushed or rolled around. It was small and could do no damage and nobody paid any attention to it. As it was rolled around it grew larger and got heavier now it could do damage but nobody could pick it up and throw it because it was too big and too heavy. Nobody paid any attention to it. Now we are down in this valley and this massive big snowball is up there on the mountain and it's starting to roll under the force of gravity It will double in size every few feet and get heavier and go faster and faster. Now people are starting to look up and pay attention. By the time it gets to us it will be too big and to heavy to divert or stop.

Our forefathers knew the dangers of a central bank and debt money when they were writing the Constitution. That is why control and the making of money was given to Congress. Now they have given that away by allowing a central bank to take over. This was part of the reason for declaring independence from England in the first place. Central bank, debt money, strong control regulation, high taxes and tariff and lack of sovereignty in the colonies. Boy that sure does sound familiar don't it?

Thomas Jefferson once warned that with central bank and debt money we could see a period of inflation followed by deflation which would leave our children homeless. I don't have that quote exact but it is still pretty accurate. Do you remember what happened in the twenties?

The unions were just beginning to organize after the turn of the century and they came on strong, wages went up, prices went up, everything went up. Excuse me but what I call that is inflation. Then we had deflation. A good description for that is the bottom fell out of it. Depression! It took a while to recover from that. The south was still suffering from that as late as the late 40's and early 50's. I remember that.

More recently the house has approved a 90 cent raise for entry level people. This could be disastrous for our economy. I believe that it will be. I believe that it is inflationary. It may have been planned that way. Here's how it goes. The entry level folks get a raise of 90 cents. Since they can't pass the people that have been there like a year or more then they get a raise to and on up the line, even supervision gets a raise. The cost is offset by raising the cost of their product. Is it starting to sound like inflation yet?

This last quarter the Fed left prime interest rates alone. The prime is about on the bottom and can't go much lower, So when they do move what do you think will happen? It will have to go up. When the prime goes up we have inflation.

This time if we have a high inflationary period, Which could easily happen the way things are going the big money folks are protected. We are going to have two different currencies. One for domestic use and one for foreign use, so all the big investor has to do is switch his investments from the domestic market to the foreign market and you have instant deflation and they still have all their money and we have a massive depression. The only people hurt is the working class American and the small business man and small investor. Since every one owes for everything they have we could end up with no more private ownership of land or property. Interesting development to come from a little 90 cent raise and every one says yes do something for the little man. Even if things don't get this far inflation will eat up the raise and nobody has gained a thing. I left out the fact that government has no business dictating to private business anyway. To put that in plain English government has no business dictating to private business. To put it in southern English government has no business dictating to private business.

I have been wondering about one thing that has puzzled me for some time now. Where does the Vatican fit in to this? Papal Rome has to fit in somewhere or so it seems to be there in Revelations. I have just received some additional information that may shed a little light on the subject. If what I have just read is true then it will certainly connect Babylon, The Scarlet Beast and The Lamb Beast together.

There is presently an outside power working to get massive changes made in the Vatican. There are also Cardinals and other powers inside the Vatican working for the same end result. They want to replace the present Pope with one that is more liberal. While some think that Pope Paul 11 is too liberal, these people think that he is too conservative.

They want to see the Church become more liberal and introduce new changes such as divorce, abortion and gays and many more changes. They hope to regain some of the power they had in the past. These changes would bring them in line to form a coalition with the Scarlet Beast and the Lamb Beast. The book of Revelations shows the Harlot sitting on the back of the Scarlet Beast so I believe that this will happen. Then Babylon will be established as the new world religion. All the others will be abolished. Unfortunately a lot of this will happen without blood shed. So you don't believe that it can happen! Well how do you think that we got to the place that we are in now? How much blood was shed while we became a Socialist country. How much blood was shed when our Churches were placed under the jurisdiction of federal police forces. My good friend ~~John Doe~~ was certainly right when he stated that Americans were to busy sitting on their cans and bickering amongst themselves to be bothered to step up and do something constructive to save what is left of our country. I have paraphrased his statement to some extent but it means pretty much the same thing. You can not continue to sit on your duff and expect things to work out because it is not going to work out. You will soon become a slave if you don't get involved. This is going to come about and it can not be stopped yet it can be postponed. It has been postponed before and it can be postponed again. Nothing can be done if you don't get involved. Our enemy has certainly been busy and has accomplished a lot in the last forty years or so. He was working while everyone was asleep or whatever everyone was doing. They were certainly not remaining awake and alert to what was going on around them.

The new world agenda is to eliminate some of the world population and they don't care how it is accomplished. Why do you think that the murder of innocent unborn children has been allowed to prevail? It is a child not a choice. Jesus said "Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven." If they are murdered before they are born then they can not come unto him yet I believe since it was not of their choice they will see him anyway. We as a nation have turned our back on God! We allow all kinds of unholy things to happen around us that should never happen. I don't believe that Christians should dictate how people should live, but I do think we should try to influence our law makers how we should have our country run and what laws we would like to have in place. If we don't speak up the devil certainly will. The moral standards of God are certainly a lot more civilized and peace making than those of the devil.

The times ahead are going to be extremely hard. They are going to be so bad that words can not describe them. People are going to die by the thousands. A third of the world population will be gone before it is over and if God does not intervene then none will survive. Christians will be killed just because they are Christians and many will turn to other ways, yet many will die for their belief. There will be many killed for no reason at all. Many will die because they stand for some opposing view but they will die.

The riders of the apocalypse, the white horse, the red horse, the black horse, and the pale horse. It is totally possible that they have already been released. The rider on the white horse could be the world power that takes power before the return of The Christ. He could be also the Anti-Christ. Although Anti-Christ does not appear anywhere in the book of Revelations, it does appear in other parts of the word and in reference to the last days. However this rider could be The Christ as He starts His conquest. He is pictured later on a white horse as He makes His final conquest and there He is more properly identified. If this is the world power starting his conquest then every thing will be taken from him when the Lord conquers him. The perils that follow are what is devastating.

The rider of the red horse rides out and power was given to him to take peace from the earth and he was given a sword. Men would kill one another. There will be war and civil war.

The rider of the black horse has a balance, or a set of scales and he is told a measure of wheat for a days wages and three measures of barley for a days wages. He was told to not damage the oil or the wine. This would indicate that food would be scarce for the working class but possibly abundant for the elite or the wealthy.

The rider of the pale horse whose name is Death following close behind is Hell. They were given power over a fourth of the world to kill with the sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beast of the earth. It appears to me that it is going to be a tough job just to stay alive. I truly advise everyone to prepare themselves for the times to come.

The devastation that comes from the opening of the seven seals, the blowing of the seven trumpets, and the poring out of the seven vials is almost more than the mind can absorb. It indicates the possibility of nuclear, chemical and germ warfare, even wild animals will be killing people. The waters will be poison, food will be scarce if it can even be found. Gardens and livestock will need to be protected. Water will be precious if your water supply is still good. You will have to share what you have but you will also have to protect it.

Things are certainly building up to lead to this kind of holocaust in the world today. The one world government is established and growing in power. A one world religion is being planned, this may be two or three religions that are allowed to operate but it won't be Christianity! We are their enemy. They can not allow us to operate freely. This new society that is being set up is not a free society. This is the reason that all our freedoms are being abolished here on the home front. The thing that breaks my heart is that it is being welcomed with open arms. You can go out on the street and ask anyone, well almost anyone, and you can see for your self that the majority of the people are in agreement with what is going on around them. They don't know what is going on around them but you will find they are still in agreement with it. They like to hear things like taking from the rich and giving to the poor. They don't know what this means. They like to hear about the government giving money to the states. They don't know what this means. The Bible states that the people will welcome the Beast with open arms and that they will love the Beast. They will welcome the mark of the Beast and I hate to say it but it will take them to Hell!

This Country was set up as a Constitutional Republic when it was founded. What that means is that we are to be dictated to by the constitution and not by man, not by government but by the constitution. We also have a bill of rights added to it so all the citizens are protected from government tyranny. This constitution has been put aside and now we are living under socialism. The government is dictating to the states and to the people and their federal tyrannical police forces are enforcing it. If you think it's bad now just sit and watch it is going to be far worse than you can even imagine.

I'm minded now of the two witnesses that are mentioned in Revelations. They preach the word for 1260 days and then the Beast kills them. They lay dead for three days and a half while the people spit on them and laugh at them. The people give gifts and make merry and refuse to bury them. After three days and a half they rise up from the dead. Do you wonder who the two witnesses are? I believe that one is the bride of Christ or the true believers and the other is the Open Bible. I'm certain that we are reaching the last days, as well as I'm certain that the nation as a whole has turned it's back on GOD. There are still a lot of solid Christians and I'm not trying to say that all have turned from GOD, but a large portion has. You can see that by the way our morals have changed here in this country.

At the Democratic convention they said the pledge of allegiance, but they omitted the words (Under God) from the pledge. It has been checked and it was deliberate and not a mistake.

"The mighty Catholic Church was little more than the Roman Empire baptized." A.C. Flick, The Rise of the Mediaeval Church, 1909 edition, p. 148

Just after emperor Constantine of the Roman Empire decreed Sunday keeping in the fourth century, he moved east and built Constantinople as his new capital. The western half of the empire was left more to the control of the pope. Then in 538, the emperor Justinian gave the pope still more civil and religious authority over the nations,--and the 1260 years of papal supremacy began. The dragon (pagan Rome) gave the leopard beast (papal Rome) it's religious power, seat of government (the city of Rome, the largest and most important city in the world in the early centuries), and it's civil or governmental authority. The word "see" used in the "Holy See" means "seat." And there the pope sits today, in the city of Rome, the seat of the ancient pagan empire. Pagan Rome gave papal Rome it's seat or see.

"The removal of the capital of the empire from Rome to Constantinople in 330, left the Western Church, practically free from imperial power, to develop it's own form of organization. The Bishop of Rome, in the seat of the Caesars, was now the greatest man in the west, and was soon [when the barbarians overran the empire] forced to become the political as well as the spiritual head." - A.C.Flick, The Rise of the Mediaeval Church, 1909 edition, p.168.

"Whatever Roman elements the barbarians and Arians left ...[came] under the protection of the Bishop of Rome, who was the chief person there after the Emperor's disappearance.. The Roman Church in this way pushed itself into the place of the Roman World-Empire, of which it is the actual continuation; the empire has not perished, but has only undergone a transformation.. It [the Catholic Church] is a political creation, and as imposing as a World-Empire, because it is a continuation of the Roman Empire. The Pope, who calls himself 'King' and 'Pontifex Maximus' [the title of the Roman Emperor in the time of Christ], is Caesar successor." -Adolf Harnack, What Is Christianity? 1903 pp.269-270

[Speaking of the time, about 500 A.D., when the Roman Empire was crumbling to pieces:] "No, the [Catholic] Church will not descend into the tomb. It will survive the Empire..At length a second empire will arise, and of this empire the Pope will be the master - more than this, he will be the master of Europe. He will dictate his orders to kings who will obey him." Andrea Lagarde, The Latin Church in the Middle Ages, 1915

"And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death, and his deadly wound was healed-and all the world wondered after the beast." Rev. 13:3

The wound took place the very year the 1260 years ended-1798. Berthier, the French general under Napoleon entered Rome and took the pope (Pius VI) captive. He was hurried from prison to prison and died eighteen months later in the French fortress of Valence. In 1870 another blow came to the papacy when Italy seized the city of Rome as it's capitol. The Pope became voluntary "prisoner of the Vatican." But the deadly wound was healed. In 1929 Cardinal Gasparri met Premier Mussolini in the palace of St. John Lateran and the Treaty of the Vatican was signed, returning temporal power to the papacy, as it was again made into a kingdom with it's own territory.

"And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth, and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon." Revelation 13:11

The previous beast came up out of the "sea," indicating it would arise in an area of many "peoples and nations and tongues," for this is what water symbolizes (Rev.17:15). But the second beast was to come up out of the "earth," in an area comparatively low in population. In 1798, when the papacy received it's deadly wound, the United States, located in the western continent, was the only great power then coming into prominence in such a relatively uninhabited territory. Only nine years previously (in 1789), the United States had adopted its national constitution. It is within the territory of the United States that we are to look for fulfillment of this prophecy.

John Wesley in his note on Revelation 13:11, written in 1754, says of the two honed or second beast of Rev.13: "He is not yet come, though he cannot be far off. For he is to appear at the end of the forty two months of the first beast." John Wesley, Explanatory Notes Upon the New Testament, 1791 edition vol. 3,p.299.

"A prominent writer, describing the rise of the United States, speaks of 'the mystery of her coming forth from vacancy,' and says, 'like a silent seed we grew into empire' G.A.Townsend, The New World Compared With the Old, 1869.p.462 A European journal in 1850 spoke of the United States as a wonderful empire, which was 'emerging' and 'amid the silence of the earth daily adding to its power and pride' (The Dublin Nation)"

"He had two horns like a lamb" Rev.13:11. The nations of the past were pictured in the Bible as beast of prey, filled with intolerance, persecution and oppression. In contrast, the United States was founded upon the principles of civil and religious liberty, equality and tolerance. These principles were written into the Constitution and its Bill of Rights. For many years those who sought relief from persecution and strife sought her shores.

"Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of grievances." The first amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America.

"And he spake as a dragon." Rev.13:11. The voice of the dragon is the voice of intolerance and persecution. We would rather that such might never happen in this free land. But farseeing statesmen have long recognized that the tendency to enforce religious dogmas by civil law is all too common with mankind, and is liable to break out in active persecution in unexpected places unless specifically guarded against.

Thomas Jefferson, in a letter to a Jewish Rabbi: "Your sect by its sufferings has furnished a remarkable proof of the universal spirit of religious intolerance, inherent in every sect..Our laws have applied the antidote to the vice..But more remains to be done; for although we are free by the law we are not so in practice. Public opinion erects itself into an inquisition, and exercises its office with as much fanaticism as fans the flames of an auto da fe [a burning of heretics]." letter to Mordecai M. Noah, May 18, 1818.

The Lamb Beast will make an image or a duplicate of the first beast, This will be for the purpose of opposing God and his teachings. Those who refuse to accept the dictates of the image beast will be slain or in other words killed. This will be the new world religion. They are already going against the teachings of God with the pushing of homosexuality and lesbianism as alternate life styles. How about the murder of the millions of unborn children. They are already putting people in jail on trumped charges. How about the assault on the church in Waco Texas. It's happening my friends.

Could it be possible that the lamb beast has already been creating a duplicate or image of the first beast? Is the purpose of the Christian Coalition, so the Church can negotiate with the government or is it so the government can negotiate with the Church? It seems to be a two way street to me. I understand that to legally qualify for the tax free benefit shared by all Churches they have to incorporate and in doing so they make an agreement to not talk against the government. Does that sound like a large step towards control of the Church? Recently congress approved and funded federal police forces to investigate Church fires, or was it Churches period that they were allowed to investigate. I have no doubt in my mind that what ever was decided on, it included a lot more than just Church fires. The Federal Government has never missed an opportunity to grab just a little bit more every chance that it had. It can only be expected when you are living under socialism, and that is where we are at today my friends.

I guess that people just don't want to accept the fact that the lord is coming back soon. Oh they will say that He is coming back soon (possibly). They will say that he is coming back someday. They can't seem to accept the fact that it might be real soon. If what I see and what I have wrote about in this paper is and in line with the prophecy of the Bible then you had best be aware that it won't be long before the return of our Lord and King. I believe that what I have written here is pretty accurate.

I can't stress enough how hard times are going to get and in the near future, I believe. A lot of things have to come about to make this transition complete. We will possibly have a major break down in our economy, jobs will be scarce, food will be scarce, anarchy will be prevalent, and there will very probably be an internal war. It may even break out into a world war.

Australia is presently in the process of taking the guns away from the people. It is hard to get news from down there so I can't elaborate on this to much, but I do understand that there is going to be a lot of resistance to this maneuver. My prayers are with the patriots down there. It is only a matter of time and it will happen here. When I say a matter of time I mean a very short time. The U.S. Congress has already approved a bill to remove all guns from homes where domestic violence has occurred. Boy! Now theres a real lulu especially considering that they are the ones who will decide what domestic violence is. Domestic violence can include almost anything that they want it to be. Registering guns is the first step to removal, this way they know where all the guns are at. Outlawing guns is the first step to slavery. You don't have to look back very far to see what Hitler did. The things he did the U.S., Canada, and Australia are doing. The same thing is happening in England and the European Union. The whole world is just around the corner from being under complete domination of International Communism. Good by free world. People all over the world are going to resist and there is going to be death and destruction through out the whole world. When I read Revelation I see death and destruction so it is easy for me to accept that this will happen. It will be massive death and destruction, the kind the world has never seen before.

Since I stopped writing on this the last time, just about a week ago, England announced a new law they are working on to outlaw all guns larger than a 22 caliber. Yes it is moving right along ain't it.

"Single acts of tyranny may be ascribed to the accidental opinion of a day; but a series of oppressions, begun at a distinguished period, and pursued unalterably through every change of ministers (administrations), too plainly proves a deliberate, systematic plan of reducing us to slavery."Thomas Jefferson

Another of our founders said ... "When the government fears the people there is liberty; When the people fear the government there is tyranny".

"The great rule of conduct for us, in regard to foreign nations, is in extending our commercial relations to have as little political connections as possible." "...Why, by interweaving our destiny with that of any part of Europe, entangle our peace and prosperity in the toils of European ambition, rivalship, interest, humor, or caprice?" "It is our true policy to steer clear of permanent alliances with any portion of the foreign world." George Washington Sept. 19 1796.

Adam Wisenhophf, professor at GERMANY'S Ingolstadt University, founded the Order of the Illuminati on May 1, 1776. This man designed the very plan of world domination that is still in use today to enslave the masses. Here, upon establishing his "order of the Illuminati", he smugly reflects on his "conning" the gullible Christians of his day saying: "The most wonderful thing of all is that the distinguished Lutheran and Calvinist theologians who belong to our order really believe that they see in it (Illuminati) the true and genuine sense of Christian religion. Oh mortal man, is there anything you cannot be made to believe?"

Evidently not! And a high percentage of Christians today are still being conned in the same way. One prime example of this are the millions of Christians, and most church denominations, who have fallen for the NWO plan of a "One World Religion", being spearheaded by the United Nations' National and World Counsel of Churches, behind the battle cry of ECUMENICALISM.

Watch the future and we will see only small groups of spiritual Americans, who will resist following the millions of "religious" lambs to slaughter. The Lord always warned his people to never follow the multitude.

Let us continue with statements from those who over the last few generations have recognized the One World Conspiracy Benjamin Disraeli, Prime Minister of England.....1844

"The world is governed by very different personages from what is imagined by those who are not behind the scenes"

Justice Felix Frankfurter, U.S. Supreme Court Justice; "The real rulers in Washington are invisible and exercise power from behind the scenes".

John F. Hyland, Mayor of New York 1918-1925, said "The real menace of our Republic is the invisible government which like a giant octopus sprawls its slimy legs over our cities, states and nation".

Winston Churchill, Prime Minister of England, stated to the press in 1922: "From the days of Spartacus, Wiseman, Karl Marx, Trotsky, Belloc, Rosa Luxemburg, and Emma Goldman this world conspiracy has been steadily growing. This conspiracy played a definite recognizable role in the tragedy of the French revolution. It has been the mainspring of every subversive movement during the 19th century. And now at last this band of extraordinary personalities from the underworld of the great cities of Europe and America have gripped the Russian people by the hair of their head and have become the undisputed masters of that enormous empire."

Franklin D. Roosevelt, U.S. President, in a letter written Nov. 21, 1933 to Colonel E. Mandell House, "The real truth of the matter is, as you and I know, that a financial element in the large centers has owned the government of the U.S. since the days of Andrew Jackson." (History points to the last truly honorable and incorruptible American president as Andrew Jackson "Old Hickory")

Peter Hoagland, Nebraska State Senator and Humanist, speaking on radio with the great American Pastor and Patriot Everett Ruess said: "Fundamental, Bible believing people do not have the right to indoctrinate their children in their religious beliefs because we, the state, are preparing them for the year 2000, when America will be part of a one-world global society and their children will not fit in."

George Herbert Walker Bush, U.S. President ret. CFR Director, Trilateralist, "Lip Reader", CIA Director, and member of the elitist Skull & Bones Society, strong promoter of the new world order. New York 1991 "My vision of a new world order foresees a United Nations with a revitalized peace keeping function." Feb. 1, 1992 "It is the SACRED principles enshrined in the UN CHARTER to which we will henceforth pledge our allegiance."

There is no question that Bush, Clinton, Perot, and many others would like to see us all join them in swearing allegiance to the UNITED NATIONS' WORLD CONSTITUTION: "...The age of nations must end....The governments of the nations have decided to order their separate sovereignties into one government to which they surrender their arms."

WILL YOU PLEDGE YOUR ALLEGIANCE TO THIS NEW SLAVE STATE

Zbigniew Brzezinski, National Security Advisor to Pres. Jimmy Carter and advisor to 4 other presidents, Exec Dir. of Trilateral Comm. Marxist and proud of it! Here he speaks of the new world order. "The technetronic era involves the gradual appearance of a more controlled society. such a society would be dominated by an elite, unrestrained by traditional values." he continues "Soon it will be possible to assert almost continuous surveillance over every citizen and maintain up-to-date complete files containing even the most personal information about the citizen. These files will be subject to instantaneous retrieval by the authorities."

Time for a hero!

Lt. Col. James "Bo" Gritz (Ret), U.S. Presidential Candidate 1992. Most decorated Green Beret Commander in American history. Commander, U.S. Army Special Forces Latin America. Chief, Delta Force. This great American hero explains the conspiracy within the U.S. government as follows "...A spider web of "patriots for profit" operating from the highest positions of special trust and confidence, have successfully circumvented our constitutional system in pursuit of a new world order. They have infused America with drugs in order to fund covert operations while sealing the fate of our servicemen left in communist prisons. Hiding behind a mask of official righteousness, this secret combination seeks to impose its own concept of geopolitical navigation, nullifying liberty as the hard won birthright of all Americans".

19

How in the world could anything like this ever happen? But surely, If this world conspiracy were true I would have heard about it in the daily news! Nothing has been said on TV or on the radio?

Here's how. John Swinton, the former Chief of Staff for the New York Times, was one of America's best loved newspapermen. Called by his peers The Dean of his Profession, John was asked in 1953 to give a toast before the New York Press Club, and in so doing made a monumentally important and revealing statement. He is quoted as follows:

"There is no such thing, at this date of the worlds history, in America, as an independent press. You know it and I know it. There is not one of you who dares write your honest opinions, and if you did, you know before hand that it would never appear in print. I am paid weekly for keeping my opinion out of the paper I am connected with. Others of you are paid similar salaries for similar things, and any of you who would be so foolish as to write honest opinions would be out on the streets looking for another job. If I allowed my honest opinion to appear in one issue of my paper, before twenty four hours my occupation would be gone. The business of the journalist is to destroy the truth; to lie outright; to pervert; to vilify; to fawn at the feet of mammon, and to sell his country and his race for his daily bread. You know it and I know it and what folly is this toasting an independent press? We are the tools and vassals of rich men behind the scenes. We are the jumping jacks, they pull the strings and we dance. Our talents, our possibilities and our lives are the property of other men. We are intellectual prostitutes."

Hard to believe? Read on.

Richard M. Cohan, Senior Producer of C.B.S. political news said "We are going to impose OUR AGENDA on the coverage by dealing with issues and subjects that WE choose to deal with."

U.S. Communist Says "Liberalism" is Socialism

Norman Thomas, For many years the U.S. Socialist Presidential candidate proclaimed: "The American people will never knowingly adopt Socialism. But under the name of "liberalism" they adopt every fragment of the Socialist program, until one day America will be a Socialist nation, without even knowing how it happened."

20

Just what is this most " wonderful " global organization all about?

Dr. Kurk E. Koch, Professor, Lectured at 100 universities in 65 countries on 5 continents. Subjects of expertise: New World Order, Occultism, Extreme Movements, Parapsychology. His assessment of the new world order under the United Nations is that it will reduce every thing to one common denominator:

"The system will be made up of a single currency, single central financed government, single tax system, single language, single political system, single world court of justice, single head (one individual leader), single state religion." He further states "Each person will have a registered number, without which he will not be allowed to buy or sell: and there will be one universal church. Anyone who refuses to take part in this universal system will have no right to exist."

Let us now turn to education and see a few quotes from U.S. spokesman and professors in that field. Perhaps first you should go get yourself a small plastic bag, you may need it.

Dr. Chester Pierce, Harvard University Professor, Humanist, New World Order Guru. This professor instructs teachers and those students who aspire to become teachers of our children as follows:

"Every child in America who enters school at the age of five is mentally ill, because he comes to school with an allegiance to our institutions, toward the preservation of this form of government that we have. Patriotism, Nationalism, and sovereignty, all that proves that children are sick because a truly well individual is one who has rejected all of those things, and is truly the child of the future."

Dr. Paul Brandwein, Leading U.S. child psychologist, states "Every child who believes in God is mentally ill."

Dr. Sidney Simon, Lecturer, Educator instructs teachers as follows: "We do not need any more preaching about right or wrong. The old thou shalt nots simply are not relevant." also he says "Values clarifications a method for teachers to change the values of children without getting caught."

Humanist Curriculum:

"It's OK to lie. It's OK to steal. It's OK to have premarital sex. It's OK to cheat or to kill if these things are part of your value system, and you clarified these values for yourself. The important thing is not what values you choose, But that you have chosen them yourself freely and without coercion of parents, spouse, priest, friends, ministers or social pressure of any kind."

What is this thing called peace?

Joseph Stalin stated that after communism succeeds, "...then, there will come a peace across the earth."

Karl Marx said "...the meaning of peace is the absence of opposition to socialism."

The Lord God said "...they have seduced my people, saying peace and there was no peace." (Ezekiel 13:10)

St. Paul said "For when they say peace and safety, then sudden destruction comes upon them, as travail upon a woman with child: and they shall not escape." (1 Thes. 5:3)

Our founding fathers had a recipe for a successful government.

James Madison: "We have staked the whole future of American civilization, not upon the power of the government, far from it. We have staked the future ...upon the capacity of each and all of us to govern ourselves, to sustain ourselves, according to the Ten Commandments of God."

John Adams: "Our Constitution was made only for a religious and moral people. It is wholly inadequate for the government of any other."

Benjamin Franklin: "Man will ultimately be governed by God or by tyrants."

George Washington: "The people know it is impossible to rightly govern without God and the Bible."

Andrew Jackson: "The Bible is the rock on which the republic rest."

Daniel Webster: "If we abide by the principles of the Bible, our country will go on prospering."

Alex De Toqueville, Upon visiting America in the early 19th century, this French historian observed: "America is great because America is good. If America ever ceases to be good it will cease to be great."

To die for an idea: it is unquestionably noble. But how much nobler it would be if men died for ideas that were true.

I say this to you, all you traitors of America, America is full of good solid patriotic Americans. They are not all traitors such as yourselves, and they will not walk meekly into your new world order. They will not lay down their BIBLE or their guns. With GOD they have a strength that can never even be imagined following that old evil dragon. My LORD has already promised to destroy you and this He will do. I only regret that it will not be today. The days of the tribulation must be and then you will meet your judgement and will face your punishment. I said the traitors to America and I should have said traitors to the world. You are setting out to destroy my King who is LORD of Lords and KING of Kings and this you can never accomplish.

James William Gribble

Babylon 2

By Bill Gribble

In my first paper I discussed the political side of coming events in the tribulation period, and the things that people are going to be doing, now I want to try to discuss some of the things that God may be doing direct, or implement by Himself directly. The Bible calls it the wrath of God. I want to mention that the entire thing is being directed, or implemented by God's plan, but some are implemented through man, while some are direct acts of God.

Jesus is coming! It will be sooner than most people think. We can not predict the actual day nor hour that this will occur, but Jesus is coming and soon I believe. Jesus Himself makes it clear that it is His will that His beloved should recognize the signs of His coming, among which He told us that there would be increase in wars, famines, pestilence, and earthquakes. There is constant talk about chemical and germ warheads on missiles around the world. (pestilence?) Madelene Albright just today announced that Saddam Husane still has scud missiles with germ warheads on them. Scientist and statesman around the world are desperately trying to find a way to prevent what they freely predict will be the greatest famine in all history.

Only the mercy of God is holding back the terrible judgements which are sure to come if not prevented by a great turning back to God.

All the civilized world has been polluted by the filthy movies that have come out of Hollywood, and in turn have spawned other producers of this kind of spiritual poison who turn them out in other parts of the world. The latest figures show that it is a center where there are more divorces than marriages. In addition, this area is a hotbed of many false cults which are poisoning this nation as well as the rest of the world, even the cult of Satan worship. These Godless people seem oblivious to the fact that they are living right over a spot where seismologists fear another mighty earthquake, perhaps much worse than the terrible one experienced in 1906, may occur. The tragedy most feared by those who have studied the great Andreas Fault (the deep fracture in the earth which is parallel to the California coastline and caused the 1906 quake) is that a greater one is coming which will tear away the coastal shelf upon which millions of homes have been built and that great area will sink into the sea.

As the signs which our Lord Jesus told us multiply, it is important for us to be alert and know what to look for as the fast moving seen unfolds in front of us. We have always had earthquakes since man has written history, but the remarkable increase in their number in the last few years is significant. William Beimes stated in an article that there were only five earthquakes recorded for each century following the birth of Christ, until the 14th century, they increased to an all time high of 137. By the 18th century they had increased (slowly each century) to 640, and then in the 19th century the figure jumps to 2119. During the 20th century (an average) one every minute of every day. Even when ample allowance is made for modern detection devices, which of course detects quakes that would not have been detected in olden times, the trend is up. Since God has used earthquakes for His own purpose (sometimes in judgement as in the case of Sodom and Gomorra) these things should move us to serious and prayerful reflection.

This is not seizing on an isolated scripture to frighten folks. Isaiah warned in chapter 2:19,21 that when the Lord comes in judgement He would "terribly shake the earth". In the 13th chapter, "therefore I will shake the heavens and the earth shall move out of it's place". In the 24th chapter He describes the earth reeling "to and fro like a drunkard" and Jeremiah, 4:24, describes the quake which would come by the fierce anger of the Lord in that day saying "all the cities therefore were broken down".

The greatest earthquake of all is yet to come, described in Revelation 16, it will be so violent that every island will sink into the sea and every mountain will be leveled.

John describes what he see's as a burning mountain falling into the sea. An asteroid? I think maybe so. Try to imagine an asteroid measuring 1 1/2 miles across falling into the Pacific ocean. The tidal wave alone could be as much as 1000 feet high and hitting the Calif. coast it could go inland as far as Reno Nev. The impact could break the tectonic plates beneath the earths surface shaking the entire earth and causing volcanos to erupt all around the earth, and possibly even moving the earth out of it's position. This one will be followed by another impact that will hit on land, or on the rivers as John describes it. The impact of this will send large quantities of dust into the air. This along with the smoke, ash, soot, and lava being spewed from the volcanos that have erupted will block off the sun for a period of time, that could take 6 months or a year or even years to clear. If you are thinking that man could get by ok if he filtered the air that he breathed, perhaps he could, but what about food? You can't grow much food without sunlight. John mentioned a third of the sun being taken away. This would indicate that you would still have two thirds of it left which would still support plant life. If our food supplies were cut by a third it seems to me that we would still have famine.

The massive earthquakes that are occurring all over the world would very probably break at least some of the dams that we have around the world. This would of course cause flooding. This flooding could and probably would wash all types of pollutants and raw sewage into the streams and waterways. There would be many different types of pollutants washed into the different areas that were flooded.

I was watching television recently and on the news they were discussing a river over in South Carolina. In this river fish were dying and they had little sores on them. They also told of people who were fishermen, skiers, swimmers, and they even mentioned a little girl who had only put her hands into the water, they were all having little sores show up on their bodies, arms, and legs. At first they didn't know what was causing them nor how to treat them. After some research and test were run on the water they discovered this little microscopic cell. The person that discovered this little thing placed a drop of his own blood on a slide with this little thing and sat and watched through the microscope as this little thing ate the drop of blood. Does this sound interesting yet? Well it sure had my attention to say the least. They finally identified this little thing. They said that it was Vesteria. (please excuse me if this is spelled wrong as I only heard the name that one time and I may have heard it wrong.) Vesteria they said was a member of the red algae and in the family that makes the red tide that many of you have seen along our coast, particularly along the coast of Calif. I mention the coast of Calif. because that is where I have seen the red tide. This red algae grows when the oxygen level is low. They feed on many of the pollutants in the water, particularly nitrogen. Their explanation to why there was such an increase in the river, they explained that with the passing of the recent hurricanes, there had been flooding which had washed raw sewage as well as sewage from hog farms out into the river. This dirty water had a low oxygen count as well as a high nitrogen level.

John saw the sea turn red with blood. He also saw the rivers turn red with blood. Our God is an omnipotent God and He, without any doubt at all, is capable of turning water into anything that He wanted to, and maybe it is meant literally that they are turned into blood, yet John was in the spirit and a distance away looking down on earth. I don't really know if it is actually blood or something that looked like blood. I do know that after being struck by two asteroids the conditions will be severe and could easily cause many of the things that are described in the book of Revelation. The burning mountain falling into the sea (an asteroid?) would certainly cause the condition for the red tide to be severe. Wormwood is the name of the star as it was called in Revelation. (again an asteroid I believe) When wormwood hits it causes the waters to turn bitter and many people die from drinking it. (bitter also means poison) Maybe some even die from getting it on them? Regardless it is quite clear that many die from the water.

I want to repeat myself that everyone should prepare themselves for the times to come. I talked earlier about things that a person should do to prepare themselves, now I want to expand that by saying that you should first and foremost prepare yourself a place with God if you have not done so already. I believe that we are certainly heading into the tribulation period and the wrath of God. If you are born again or saved you will be under Grace and will not suffer the plagues of the wrath of God. If you are not you will certainly suffer the plagues that are described in Revelation. I know that a lot of folks believe that the saints will be raptured or removed from this world before the tribulations. I can not find anything to substantiate this belief, however I do find scriptures that indicate that we will be here during the tribulations. I won't argue this with anyone but if you show me your scriptures, I'll show you mine and we can compare them in context of how they were written. I believe that anyone who believes in an early rapture will not be prepared for the things to come

Will this world survive? Could this world really end? If it did what would it really mean? Has a world ever ended before? Yes a world did end. The world had become very wicked in the days of Noah. The Bible tells that "The world of that time suffered destruction when it was deluged with water", it also states "God did not hold back from punishing an ancient world, but kept Noah, a preacher of righteousness, safe with seven others when He brought a deluge upon a world of ungodly people". 2 Peter 2:5, 3:6

Notice what the end of the world meant and what it did not mean. It did not mean the end of humankind. Noah and his family survived the global flood, so did the planet earth and the starry heavens. It was a wicked system of things that perished, a world of ungodly people. As time passed, as Noah's offspring increased another world developed. That second world of systems of things, has existed down to our day. It's history has been filled with war, crime, and violence. What will happen to this world? Will it survive?

Who really rules this world? Many would answer this with a single word----God. But nowhere in the Bible does it say that either Christ Jesus or His Father are the real ruler of this world. On the contrary Jesus said "The ruler of this world would be cast out". There is no reason to guess at the matter, for the Bible clearly shows that an intelligent, unseen person has been controlling both men and nations. It says "the whole world is lying in the power of the wicked one" also "the one called Devil and Satan is misleading the entire inhabited world" 1 John 5:19 Revelation 12:9

On the occasion when Jesus was tempted by the Devil, Jesus did not question Satan's role as ruler of the world. The Bible says that Satan took Jesus to a very high place on a mountain and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory, and he said to Him "all these things I will give to you if you will fall down and do an act of worship to me". then Jesus said to him, "Go away Satan". Think about this a moment, Satan tempted Jesus by offering Him "all the kingdoms of the world". Yet would Satan's offer have been a real temptation if Satan was not actually the ruler of these kingdoms?

True, many may scoff at the idea that this world is really ruled by wicked spirits. Their disbelief is not surprising since the Bible says "Satan himself keeps transforming himself into an angel of light". 2 Corinthians 11:14. His most clever deception has been in blinding many to the fact that he and his demons really exist. Do not be deceived! The Devil and his demons are real, and you need to resist them continually. 1 Peter 5:8,9

When will this world really end? What sign did Jesus give of His coming and of the end of the world? Jesus did not give just one event as the sign, He described many events and situations. All these would take place during the time that Bible writers called "the last days". Consider some of the things that Jesus foretold would mark the last days.

"Nation will rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom". Matthew 24:7

War in modern times has been of a greater magnitude than ever before. One historian noted "the first world war, beginning in 1914 was the first total war". Yet the second world war was much more destructive. And war continues to ravage the earth. Yes Jesus' words have undergone fulfillment in a dramatic way.

"There will be famines" Matthew 24:7

Following world war 1 came perhaps the greatest famine in all history. Terrible famine also followed world war 2. A scourge of malnutrition affects up to one fifth the world population, killing some 14 million children every year. Truly there have been food shortages.

"There will be great earthquakes". Luke 21:11

On the average about ten times as many people have died each year from earthquakes since 1914 as in previous centuries. Here's only a few major ones, 1920 China 200,000 killed, 1923 Japan 99,300 casualties, 1939 Turkey 32,700 fatalities, 1970 Peru 66,800 killed and 1976 China 249,000 (or according to some sources 800,000) casualties. Surely great earthquakes.

"In one place after another pestilences". Luke 21:11

Right after world war 1 some 21 million people died of the Spanish flu. Science Digest reported "In all history there had been no sterner, swifter visitation of death". Since then heart disease, cancer, aids, and many other plagues have killed hundreds of millions of people.

The disciples ask. "Tell us when will all these things be? And what will be the sign of your coming, and of the end of the age?"

And Jesus said to them: "Take heed that no one deceive you. For many will come in my name saying 'I am the Christ', and will deceive many.

"And you will hear of war and rumors of wars. See that you are not troubled; for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

"For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. And there will be famines, pestilences, and earthquakes in various places.

"All these are the beginning of sorrows.

"Then they will deliver you up to tribulation and will kill you, and you will be hated by all nations for my name sake.

"And many will be offended, will betray one another, and will hate one another.

"Then many false prophets will rise up and deceive many.

"And because lawlessness will abound the love of many will grow cold.

"But he who endures to the end will be saved.

"And this gospel will be preached in all the world as a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come.
Matthew 24:3,14

"For then there will be tribulation, such as has not been since the beginning of the world until this time, no nor ever shall be.

"And unless those days were shortened, no flesh would be saved; but for the elects sake those days will be shortened.

"Then if anyone says to you, 'look here is the Christ' or 'there' do not believe it.

"For false Christ and false prophets will rise and show great signs and wonders to deceive, if possible even the elect.

"See I have told you beforehand.

"Therefore if they say to you, 'look, He is in the desert' or 'look, He is in the inner rooms!' do not believe it.

For as lightning comes from the east and flashes to the west so also will the coming of the Son Of Man be." Matthew 24:21,27

"But of that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, but my Father only.

"But as the days of Noah were, so will the coming of the Son Of Man be.

"For in the days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark.

"And did not know until the flood came and took them away, so will the coming of the Son Of Man be." Matthew 24: 36,39

Are you ready to meet Jesus when He comes?

"Jesus said in His letter to the church of Smyrna, "Do not fear the things you are about to suffer. Indeed, the Devil is about to throw some of you in to prison, that you may be tested and you will have tribulation ten days. Be faithful until death, and I will give you a crown of life." Revelation 2:10

Should the second coming of Christ bother me? Not if I have studied His Revelation.

The word revelation (Greek--Apocalypse) is used of Jesus only in the New Testament, and not at all in the Old. (The old Testament "prophecies" were not a complete revealing as this word signifies.)

This word is used in two ways to describe Jesus.

1. His truth revealed in scripture.

A. Things which "eye hath not seen, nor ear heard", "God hath revealed it unto us by the spirit". 1 Corinthians 2:9,10. These revealed to inspired men.

1. At various times. 2 Corinthians 12:1,7

2. In the first century church.

3. miraculously, and not learned in school.

Galatians 1:12, 2:2

B. Once a mystery (in Old Testament) is now completely revealed in the New Testament. Romans 16:25,26

1. The mystery now reveals Jesus from birth to ascension. 1 Timothy 3:16

2. Was miraculously given Ephesians 1:17,18 until it could be written in few (inspired) words. Ephesians 3:3.

11. His bodily presence.

A. After His birth, Simeon called Him a "light to lighten (Greek--Apocalypse) the Gentiles". Luke 2:32

B. When He comes again.

1. 2 Thessalonian 1:7,8 "And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord shall be revealed from heaven with His mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ". A day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgement of God. Romans 2:5

2. There will be "Praise and honor and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ" and "Grace" (1 Peter 1:7,13 4:13) given to those who have obeyed the Gospel. Mark 16:15,16

1 Corinthians 1:7

No one has any other revelation of the Lord Jesus Christ. There have been no "latter" revelations, for Jesus has been revealed: (1. That He came to save men; (2. That He will judge all men.) We must study the revelation that we have (the New Testament) and not be influenced by men who claim to know more than is written. 1 Corinthians 4:6 14:37

We must be on guard or we will surely be deceived. We have the Devil constantly trying to deceive us, we also have his disciples out there working to deceive and mislead us. This is why Jesus expressed so strongly against false Christ's and false prophets or false preachers. It will be pretty hard for someone to mislead us if we stay in the word and study what has been taught us in the word. However if you don't know what is in the word you don't have any defense against false teachings.

I have mentioned earlier, how this is all God's plan, and I've also talked about how the Devil or Satan rules this world. This may seem a little contradictory, however both these statements are accurate. I hope that I can explain this to everyone's understanding. Our God is an Omnipotent God. He is a most powerful God and He could have destroyed Satan at the time that he was thrown out of heaven. Satan is not the opposite of God! Satan also is not anywhere as powerful as God. Satan was created by God and he went bad with pride and greed. He thought that he was powerful enough to take a more powerful position in heaven, perhaps to even take the position of God Himself. There was war in heaven. Michael and his band of angels defeated Lucifer (another of Satan's names) and his band of angels and cast them from heaven. God at that time could have destroyed Satan, but God would have been accused of being selfish and greedy and unrighteous, in not allowing anyone a chance. So Satan was cast from heaven to roam the earth and do his will for a time until God was ready to judge him for his wrong doings. Satan has all his powers that he had while he was in heaven, plus all the power and authority that man has given him, plus all that he has been able to extort and steal. This is how he has been able to gain control of the kingdoms of earth. Man gave them to him, however there were times that man gave some of them to God through out history, but he would soon turn his back to God and in turn give the kingdom back to Satan. I believe that today Satan rules the entire world.

Satan knows that God is going to judge him and destroy him. In anger at his loses he has set out to destroy and take as much as he can before his day comes. Satan the Devil has come to kill, steal, and destroy as much as he can before it is to late. He has been allowed to gain power here on earth, and to roam free for a time.

Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan was among them.

And the Lord said to Satan, "From where do you come?" So Satan answered the Lord and said "From going to and fro on the earth and from walking back and forth on it." Job 1:6,7

Satan has been very busy and he has gained many followers. He has rewarded many of them for their loyalty. He has made them rich and powerful. He has given some of them the kingdoms and all their glory, the same that he promised Jesus, when he tried to get Jesus to kneel down to him.

God is the all powerful God, the same that created all things and put all things into motion. God has allowed Satan his free reign for a time, while He builds His case against Satan. Soon the wrath of God will be brought down on Satan and all His followers, all that have his mark. The ones that have the mark of God, the faithful and true, and obey His commandments will be under Grace and will not be effected by the wrath of God. There will be a tribulation and many of God's people will be put into prison and many will be killed. When this starts you will need provisions to sustain yourself, while you are in hiding, if you are fortunate enough to be able to get away.

God's original plan was to place Jesus on the throne of David 2000 years ago, if the Jews had obeyed God during the 70 week probationary period, that is mentioned in the book of Daniel. They did not obey God, so God resorted to His alternate plan. Jesus lay down His life on the cross of Calvary, setting into effect the New Covenant. Do not misunderstand me, I'm not trying to say that God is not keeping His word. He is always faithful to His word. God don't lie. All the prophecies in the Old Testament will be fulfilled along with what has been foretold in the New Testament. It will be for the believers that accept Jesus as Lord. It will be for the new Israel not the old. It will be for the new Jerusalem and not the old.

"For if that first covenant had been faultless, then no place would have been sought for a second."

"Because finding fault with them, He says; "Behold, the days are coming, says the Lord, When I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah--

"Not according to the covenant I made with their fathers in the days when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt, because they did not continue in my covenant, and I disregarded them, Says the Lord.

"For this is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the lord: I will put my laws in their mind and write them in their hearts; and I will be their God and they will be my people.

"None of them shall teach their neighbor, and none his brother, saying 'Know the Lord,' for all shall know Me, from the least of them to the greatest of them.

"For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sin and their lawless deeds I will remember no more.

"In that He says , "A new covenant," He has made the first obsolete. Now what is becoming obsolete and growing old is ready to vanish away." Hebrews 8:7,13 Jeremiah 31:31,34

There was to be only one advent of Messiah. Isaiah 9:6,7

The Hebrew translation is Messiah, and the Greek translation is Christ. They are both the proper titles of our Lord Jesus.

There was originally only going to be one advent of Christ, about 2000 years ago, after the end of the 70 weeks of Daniel 9.

(Daniel 9:24,27) If the Jews had been faithful to their calling and fulfilled all that God had asked of them during their 70 week probationary time, the Messiah would have established His eternal kingdom here on earth, on the throne of David, when He first appeared. Psalms 132:11 Luke 1:32

In a series of visions, Ezekiel saw what would happen 600 years later, in a final confrontation, when Satan comes against Jerusalem, God's people. God showed Ezekiel that the Devil and his followers would be destroyed. Gog is the prophetic name of the devil, Masquerading as a great king coming down out of the north after the end of Daniel's 70 weeks. (A.D.34) Gog would lead a confederation of nations (Magog) against Jerusalem because once the Messiah established His kingdom, it would rapidly expand to include the whole earth. Ezekiel's vision ends with the destruction of Gog and Magog, with fire coming down from Heaven, thus relieving God's people from any evil threat. If you understand John's visions in Revelation, Ezekiel's prophecies are easier to understand, since they parallel coming events. Gog represents for Ezekiel what the dragon represents for John. At the end of the millennium, the devil will appear physically and lead the wicked, who are resurrected at the end of the 1000 years against the holy city, New Jerusalem. The devil and all his followers will be destroyed when fire comes down from Heaven and consumes them.

Ezekiel's prophecies of the first advent is told in the 35, 36, 37, 38, and 39th chapter of Ezekiel. The 35th chapter has been fulfilled, and will not happen again. This was fulfilled when the Romans and Greeks were raiding. (Malichi 1:3,4) The Edomites were destroyed completely as well as the land and all the towns and villages. The Edomites had joined Babylon when they attacked Israel and in turn were placed into captivity. The Edomites occupied the land that belonged to Israel while they were in exile to Babylon. God led the Israelites out of bondage from Babylon as He had promised, so that Israel would be free to serve God and follow the instructions that God had given them. They were faithful for awhile, then they turned their backs to God.

When I quoted Paul's letter to the Hebrews earlier (Hebrews 8:13), "In that He says, "a New Covenant", He has made the first obsolete. Now what is becoming obsolete and growing old is ready to pass away." Does this mean that we should discard the old and only use the new? By no means. The Old Testament is still every bit as important as the New. The Old Testament (Covenant) Brings light to the New Covenant. We also should learn from the mistakes that were made in the past. It would appear that no one is spending any time reading it since we are making the same mistakes that were made in the past. As a matter of fact I wonder how much reading is being done in either of these two great books, since it is so obvious that America has turned her back on God.

Did Israel's failure during the 70 weeks mean that God failed to do all that He promised? God never fails. (Romans 9:6) Then what went wrong? Israel rebelled over and over, again and again. (Malichi 1:6,14) Can God accomplish His plan through a nation of hardhearted people? No! God does not force people to obey His word. God unconditionally freed Israel from Babylon so that they might respond to His goodness of their own accord. But, they rejected their benefactor.

Make note of these few points while you are studying through the word on some of the prophecies. God states who His enemies are. Noah had three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth. Israel's enemies, Magog, Gomer, Tubal and Meshech were descendants of Japheth that settled in the northern lands (Europe and Asia) after the tower of Babel incident. (Genesis 10:2) Cush and Put were also enemies of Israel. They were the descendants of Ham. (Genesis 10:6) The Jews considered the northern frontiers to be where destruction originated. (see Isaiah 41:25, 43:6. Jeremiah 1:4, 4:6, 46:24, 50:9, Ezekiel 1:4, 26:7.) Abraham was a descendant of Shem. The interesting point about the descendants of Japheth and Ham standing in opposition to the descendants of Shem (Israel) is that we find the ratio of $1/3 - 2/3$'s. (see Ezekiel 5:12, 2 Samuel 8:2, Zechariah 13:9, Revelation 8 & 9.) It is interesting that even in God's palace we find the $1/3 - 2/3$ s ratio for $1/3$ of the angels followed Lucifer and the remaining $2/3$ s remained faithful.

There are certain other numbers that are used in such a way that they are thought to be in themselves a sort of language of their own, with meanings beyond their numerical value. here are some of them:

- 3: The numerical signature of God.
- 4: The numerical signature of nature, creation.
- 7: 3 plus 4, the signature of totality.
- 12: 3 times 4 the signature of God's people.
- 10: the signature of worldly power.

The number seven is a most fascinating number and is quite conspicuous throughout the Bible. The Sabeth was seventh day. The Levitical system of the Old Testament was based on a cycle of sevens. Jerico fell after seven priests, with seven trumpets, for seven days, marched around it's walls, and blew their trumpets seven times on the seventh day. Naaman dipped in the Jordan seven times. The Bible begins with seven days of creation and ends with a book of sevens about the ultimate destiny of creation. The book of Revelation is built around a system of sevens. Seven letters to the seven churches (Chapters 1-3), Seven seals and seven trumpets (chapters 4-11), Seven vials (chapters 15-16), Seven candlesticks (1:12,20), Seven stars (1:16,20), Seven angels (1:20), Seven spirits (1:4), A Lamb with seven Horns and seven eyes (5:6), Seven lamps (4:5), Seven thunders (10:3,4), A red dragon with seven heads and seven crowns (12:1), A leopard like beast with seven heads (13:1), A scarlet colored beast with seven heads (17:3,7), Seven mountains (17:9) and seven kings (17:10).

Seven is a favorite letter in God's alphabet. There are seven days in a week. Seven notes in music. Seven colors in the rainbow. Used as often as it is, it must have some significance over and above it's numerical value. Symbolically, it is thought to stand for completeness, a unit, fullness, totality.

There are seven blessed's in the book of Revelation. Whether this was by design or just happened, no one knows.

"Blessed is he that reads this prophecy." (1:3)
 "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord." (14:13)
 "Blessed is he who watches for the Lord's coming," (16:15)
 "Blessed are those bidden to the Lamb's marriage supper." (19:9)
 "Blessed is he that has part in the first resurrection." (20:6)
 "Blessed is he that keeps the words of this book." (22:7)
 "Blessed are they that wash their robes." (22:14)

Any person who makes something or creates something will always leave his mark or signature on it. When God created the universe He placed His signature on it. The universe has three things, You can not remove one nor add another, it will not exist. It has height, width, and length. If you take any of the three away it will not exist. When God invented time, (Genesis 1:14) or created if you prefer, He gave it three things. If you take any of the three away then it would no longer exist. He gave it past, present, and future. Time can not exist if you take either of the three away. The Bible teaches that there is but one God. Yet, He has given Himself three different personalities, The Father, The Son, and The Holy Spirit. They could be compared with time, for example, God The Father has never been seen and we all have a hope of seeing Him and being with Him. This would be likened to the future which we have never seen and we wait for. The Son Jesus, our Lord and Savior would be likened to the present, He is there in Heaven now interceding for us to the Father. The Holy Spirit could be likened to the past, for He brings light to the Lord Jesus, and teaches us through the word.

I have mentioned on many occasions, the importance of prayer concerning current events and our leaders. I have stated the importance, and how prayer can change so many things. However you must pray and pray continually to achieve the results you want. However sometimes the answer may be no. In reading in the word in Revelation 5:8 and again in 8:4 I find that the prayers of the saints are weighed by the Divine Arbiter, as He charts the course of history. What a light this sheds on prayer!

Then in the 6th chapter of Revelation The Lamb takes the scroll and prepares to open the seals.

The first seal, The White Horse, it's rider a conquering king. Perhaps this is the Lord as He sets out to conquer the world, He is identified more clearly later on. Revelation 19:11 Perhaps this is the world power that is opposing Christ.

If it is the new world power, The kingdom of Satan, then our Lord and King will soon conquer him and take the seat of power.

The second seal, The Red Horse, civil war. If the rider of the white horse is Christ, then the red horse, the black horse, and the pale horse may represent the woes that scourge mankind on account of their rejection of Christ.

If the white horse represents the new world power, then the red horse, the black horse and the pale horse, may represent the terrifying wars that will follow.

The Black Horse, famine, the result of war, the rider is carrying scales or a balance. A days pay for a measure of wheat. This would indicate that food may be scarce. Oil and wine hurt not, seems to indicate that luxuries were abundant while necessities were at famine prices, possibly meaning that rulers had plenty while common people were in want, a result of prolonged wars.

The Pale Horse, death, result of war and famine. The rider was Death, followed by Hades. They were given power to kill a fourth part of the world, by sword, hunger, with death, and by the beast of the earth.

The statement at the end of the seven seals and the seven trumpets, Revelation 11:15, "The Kingdom of the World is become the Kingdom of our Lord and His Christ," may indicate that the "Kingdom of the World" was in the saddle from the start.

The fifth seal, a vision of the souls of martyrs. Beginning with the Roman Empire, later the Papacy, the other persecutions throughout history and then the persecutions of the tribulation period of the last days.

The sixth seal, The day of wrath at hand. Revolution, upheaval, convulsion, consternation, sun darkened, stars falling, heavens rolled up, mountains and islands removed, Kings and peoples frightened.

The seventh seal. Out of the seventh seal came the seven trumpets. The double seven is thought to emphasize the idea of totality. Thus the two sevens, chapters 6 to 11, have outlined the complete, everlasting victory of Christ over the Kingdom of the World. (11:15)

"Prayers of The Saints" (8:3,4), God about to answer the cries of the martyrs of 6:9,10. Answer, the awful judgements of the seven trumpets. It seems to indicate that prayer has some influence with God in shaping the course of history.

1st trumpet: Hail, fire, blood cast upon the earth.

2nd trumpet: Great burning mountain cast into the sea.

3rd trumpet: Great burning star cast into the rivers.

4th trumpet: Sun, moon, stars darkened.

"The third part" of the earth, sea, rivers, and heavenly bodies, was smitten, as if destruction was only partial.

5th trumpet: An army of demon locust.

6th trumpet: The army of 200,000,000 horsemen.

7th trumpet: Revelation 11:15, "Then the seventh angel sounded: And there were loud voices in heaven, saying, 'The kingdoms of the world have become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ, and He shall reign forever and ever!'"

Antichrist: The word antichrist is nowhere in the book of Revelation, which is rather surprising, in view of it's abundant use in books about Revelation. It occurs in 1 John 2:18,22; 4:3; 11 John 7; where it is said that there were already many antichrist. Even though some comentators overdo "antichrist", and read it into passages where it may not have been intended, yet there are many passages of scripture, which, without calling it by the name "antichrist", rather plainly indicate that this gospel age is to end in a terrible outbreak of evil just preceding the coming of the Lord.

Jesus said that His coming would be preceded by "Great Tribulation" (Matthew 24:21,29,) that it will be a time of mourning for all nations (Matthew 24:29,30), and men will be "fainting for fear and expectation of things coming on the world " (Luke 21:24,26), and implied that there will be little faith at that time (Luke 18:8).

Daniel spoke of a "Time of trouble such as never was" to be at the "Time of the end" (Daniel 12:1, 4, 9, 13). In 11 Thessalonians 2:3,10 it is said that there would rise to power a blasphemous "Man of Sin" who will be destroyed by the Lord's coming.

In trying to interpret the prophetic imagery of the book of Revelation, it is easier to trace its parallel with what has already transpired than it is to feel sure of its exact bearing on what is still in the future.

While the seven seals and seven trumpets seem to have portrayed an exact outline of great features of world history thus far, a more complete fulfillment is still in the making.

May it not be that the Roman Empire, in its furious persecution of the Church, was a manifestation of Antichrist? and Mohammedanism, another? And, now, the rise to power, right before our own eyes, of atheistic communism, in the form of the United Nations, may it not be the renewed growling of Antichrist? May it not be that the night is far spent and the day is at hand. Have you heard from God lately? Could it be that you haven't called on Him lately? If you were arrested for being a Christian today, would there be enough evidence to convict you? In old Babylon, the Satraps were jealous of Daniel, and sought to find fault with him. They could find no fault, so they went to the King and sought to have the law changed. The King changed the law and decreed that no person should petition any God or man except him for thirty days. If they did then they would be thrown into the lions den. Daniels practice was to pray to God before an open window three times a day. The Satraps watched and when Daniel prayed before the open window, as was his custom, they went to the King and accused him. The King convicted him and threw him into the lions den. The Bible says that we will be arrested and thrown into jail for just being a Christian, or because of His name. Would the Prosecutor have enough evidence to get a conviction on you?

In an earlier paper I wrote, about two years ago, I wrote about the cashless system and how I believed that it was the mark of the beast. I was going to stay away from the things that man is doing in this paper, Yet, I'm compelled to add this new item that I have received.

Mastercard (51% owner of Mondex International) has changed their logo to "future money". They have also unveiled the "SET Mark" to accompany Mondex wherever it goes. Please keep in mind the two terms "The Future Money" and "SET Marc" or "SET MARK".

Remember also that SET is the Egyptian name for Satan or Satanic.

Recent Toronto Dominion (a Canadian bank) commercials show a metal claw trying to awkwardly clasp at coins. The sublime message being "Monetary Dexterity", just as Mon-Dex derived their name. Health Canada is also running commercials, explaining that "our health cards will be part of the soon to arrive "Marc".

The Mondex name three ring Masonic logo, are on the face of the card. If I'm not mistaken the Mastercard displays the same three ring logo.

Many of the banks are pushing to go cashless.

Scotia Bank Reps, have said that they will remove checking from their system altogether by sometime next year.

Toronto Dominion Bank will only be accepting cash but not issuing it by this time next year. They explained that you may turn it in for credit but withdrawals will only be made using Mondex products.

The Royal Bank has issued a video to their shareholders, with a proposal to begin human chip implants next year.

A bank of Montreal (Mbanx) manager revealed that Mondex is not being accepted well by merchants despite media propaganda. He also confirmed human chip implants would be in use within two years.

Mondex has descended like a cloud on Jax Florida, just as it has in Guelph, as an initial U.S. site.

In a recent Mondex magazine they show a thermographic image of a hand holding a golden key. From the hand is flowing a DNA strand that goes into a keyhole. The image is very disturbing.

And more on the home front here in Alabama. Our bank constantly send us advertisements promoting the use of our bank cards instead of checks. I intend to turn my card in soon and quit using it. I don't believe that our current card is the mark but it is certainly leading to it. Our present card has a magnetic strip and the new card has a computer chip in it. Not much information can be stored on the magnetic strip, but everything about you can be stored on the computer chip. This is why I'm opposed to the government I.D. card. They haven't been able to get a national card approved. They won't need it with this new bank card or chip implant.

This three ring logo is also held dearly by the York Rite of freemasonry (Natwest a part of) sometimes known as Knights Templar. Their symbol, a black beast prompting a shield.

I looked up Mondex on the world wide web.

<http://www.mondex.ca/> I found it rather interesting. It said that the heart of the Mondex system is a computer chip in a plastic card. information is stored from your checking and savings accounts. since this is a computer chip your complete life history can be stored here.

Then I looked up Mastercard.

<http://www.mastercard.com/press/970718a.html> Their logo at the head "Mastercard the Future Money".

First statement: San Francisco, Ca. July, 18, 1997 The industry standard "Secure Electronic Transaction" (SET) standard took one step closer to becoming a global standard today as nearly 20 technology companies showcased their SET technology at the "Promise of SET" event co-hosted by Visa International and Mastercard International in San Francisco. Mastercard's SVP Steve Mott said "Today's participants play a crucial role in the acceptance of SET as global payment standard of choice for shopping on the internet, providing financial institutions, merchants and consumers a secure means of electronic commerce at a time of dramatic growth"

The page stated that "The SET Mark is a registered trade mark of Visa and Mastercard.

SET introduced by Visa and Mastercard, with assistance from technology partners IBM, Terisa Systems, GTE, Verisign, RSA, Netscape, Microsoft and SAIC. The specification was completed in May 1997.

May it not be that the night is far spent and the day is at hand?

Regardless of what ever else comes of the latest treaties with Russia and with China, they have dropped the barriers around their borders. We are now able to go inside to preach the gospel and take in Bibles. Christians are still oppressed but the gospel can be preached, at least to some extent. Remember what our Lord told us, "And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in all the world as a witness to all the nations, then the end will come." Matthew 24:14

Revelation 10:7 -- "but in the days of the sounding of the seventh angel, the mystery of God would be finished, as He declared to His servants the prophets."

The mystery kept secret since before the world began, Romans 16:25, was kept secret and hidden in God Himself. Ephesians 3:9 If this mystery had not been kept hidden, then Jesus would not have been killed, and the whole plan would have fallen apart. The gospel would not have happened: We would not have our salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ. The gospel is that Jesus is the Son Of God, He came down and lived a perfect life without blemish and then took the sin of the world on His own shoulders. He was killed on the cross at Calvary. Three days later He arose and is still alive today. Upon this is the gospel and upon this is our salvation if only we believe. He is coming back soon and He will judge all the people of the earth. If you believe and love Him you will be spared, and will spend eternity with the Lord and our Father, in Heaven. If you do not believe and love Him you will spend eternity in Hell, which is eternal death and separation from God for all eternity. The greatest agony of this is being separated from God for all eternity. 1 Corinthians 1:21, Romans 8:1,3, John 3:16, John 3:3, John 3:5, Matthew 28:19, Mark 16:16, Luke 24:46, Luke 24:38,39, Romans 4:24,25, Romans 10:11,13, Revelation 3:20,21. The mystery of the gospel has been revealed in the New Covenant, The New Testament, it is for us to believe or not believe. You have a free choice. Time is short. The Lord is coming back soon and I am looking forward to seeing Him.

The completion of the mystery of God will be the appearance of our Lord Jesus Christ, coming in glory. "Behold I come as a thief. Blessed is he who watches and keeps his garments, lest he walk naked and they see his shame." Revelation 16:15

In chapter 10 we come to the little open book. In chapter 5 it was a sealed book. Here it is an open book. The open book is one of the messages of the sealed book, for it appears under the sixth trumpet, which came out of the seventh seal. It seems to be an announcement, in a setting of awful majesty, that the end is near (10:7), but that, before the end comes, there is yet another prophetic period to cover. The particular message of the little open book seems to be the prophecy about the temple being measured and the two witnesses (chapter 11), a prophecy that made John sick at heart (10:10).

The Temple is measured, but the court and the holy city are left to be trodden under foot by the nations for 42 months. This appears to draw a distinction between the true inner church and the external visible professing church. The one to be preserved and protected of God, the other to be corrupted, desecrated and exploited, by the world. It seems to predict large scale apostasy in the church. The vision made John sick at heart.

God's two witnesses, prophesying in sackcloth 1260 days (11:3), seems to be identical with the inner temple of (11:1), as the outer holy city is trodden under foot by the nations 42 months. It is the same period for both. 42 months, at 30 days to a month, is 1260 days.

Two Olive Trees and Two Candlesticks, (11:4) is an obvious reference to Zechariah 4:1,14, where it is explained that the candlestick represents the House of God, and the Olive trees the Spirit of God, as if to include the Spirit in the testimony of the church, or, since this is the message of the little book (10:2, 10,11), and since the Spirit works through the word, the two witnesses may thus be the true church and the word of God.

My belief is that these two witnesses are the true church and the open bible. I believe that when the new world power takes full control of the world, that their first goal will be to establish their own church. This will be the apostate church which is already in existence and thriving. It will be mixed with other existing religions. The true believer who will not change will have to be eliminated. He will be put into prisons and he will be killed. The word of God predicts this to occur, so don't be shocked by what I tell you. You do not have to die or go to prison, all you need to do is join them and all will go well with you. That is till the wrath of God descends on you. The bible teaches me to fear not the one who can kill my body, but to fear the one that can kill both body and soul.

Revelation, up to this point, in the seven seals and seven trumpets, the story has been carried forward to the day of final judgement dealing largely with the fate of the world.

Now in chapter 12, the writer returns to the starting place, and, in another series of visions, begins portrayal of things previously omitted, relating largely to the church.

The Woman, about to give birth to a child, seems, up to verse 5, to represent Israel, and from verse 6 onward, to represent the church.

The Hebrew nation, nurtured of God, through the long centuries, for the purpose of bringing Christ into the world, is here personified as a Queen in Heavenly Glory, giving birth to the Child of the Ages.

The Child was Christ, the Messiah, Satan was waiting to devour Him at birth (12:4). This seems like a reference Herod's effort to kill Christ as a babe. If he could have succeeded, he may thus have thwarted Christ's Redemptive Work, for surely a new born babe could not die for the sins of the world.

Satan did however, through Judas (John 13:2,27), succeed in having Jesus as a grown man put to death. This of course completed the mystery of God keep hidden in Himself, since before the world began. Had Satan known what the secret was you can be assured that there would have been a total different outcome. However that boomeranged against Satan, For it supplied God's people with the one weapon which Satan is powerless, the "Blood Of The Lamb"

The Dragon who is identified as Satan, the Devil, is afraid of Jesus and will flee at the sound of His name. Satan has been defeated already, except for total destruction, which will be coming soon. Michael and his angels defeated him. Jesus also defeated him. Jesus went into his own realm and took away his keys. Revelation 1:18 He says that "I have the keys of Hades and death." How else could a person get someone's keys without taking them. It is only a matter of time and Satan will be destroyed totally and Jesus will establish His Kingdom. For this I pray.

The beast rising from the sea, (rising from the sea means rising from the populations) is the symbol of world power. He is described as having seven heads and ten horns, with ten crowns on the horns. At the time John was writing this great book, Revelation, the beast had been in power six times and the seventh was yet to come. Today the seventh is past and the eighth is yet to come. When the eighth arrives he will only be in power a short time and The Lord will come and establish His Kingdom.

Anytime a power takes control, there is always death, destruction, and famine, due to the prolonged wars. In the final stages of the consummating of this final take over, there will be civil war all over the world. People will rise up, to no avail, to try to stop this thing. It will already be to late, yet they will rise up, millions will die. Satan will use the disasters of the asteroids, the meteor showers, volcanos, earthquakes, famines, and pestilence to achieve his goals. He will be successful and will bring in this world government to power.

This is when he will bring in the one world religion. It will be easy for him to implement this image to the first beast, because people have already turned their back on God and need some place to turn.

They will hate the few remaining true believers because they will blame God for the disasters that have befallen them. Many of the believers will turn at this time, because they can not stand the isolation, and because of the great things that the beast is doing. Jesus said to stand firm and He will give us a crown of life.

Chapter 13:11, Then I saw another beast coming up out of the earth, (coming up out of the earth means to rise up out of the wilderness) he had two horns like a lamb, and spoke like a dragon. I have stated before that I believe that this beast is America, look at my first paper to see what I have said. This beast has two horns. Horns are a symbol of kingdoms. There are two, the United States and Canada, Mexico is not included because it is already part of Babylon.

This beast will make an image of the first beast, and he will cause those who do not worship the beast to be killed.

He causes all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on their right hand or their forehead.

Go back and see what I have written earlier in this part as well as the first part of this paper. Visa and Mastercard are surely a strong part of the world banking system. I strongly believe that this is the mark, and they are also coming out of the Lamb Beast.

The world powers that have dominated the world thus far and in order are, Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, Persia, Greece, Rome, and the Papacy. The eighth is yet to come, but it is not far off.

The seven vials or seven bowls of God's wrath seem possibly to run parallel with the seven trumpets. Chapters 12, 13, and 14 seem to be an outline of the whole picture. Chapter 15 seems to pick up where his first visions were. This is the getting ready to pour out the seven bowls of God's wrath. Chapter 16 is where they actually begin pouring the bowls of God's wrath. The seven seals, the seven trumpets, and the seven bowls are all the judgements of God, and they are all placed on those that do not accept the Lord Jesus Christ, the ones that do not repent and turn from their sins, the ones who do not keep the commandments of God.

Then I heard a loud voice from the temple saying to the seven angels, "Go and pour out the bowls of God's wrath on the earth". (16:1)

The first, a foul and loathsome sore came on the men that had the mark of the beast those who worshiped his image.

The second, poured on the sea and it turned to blood as of a dead man, everything in the sea died.

The third, poured on the rivers and they turned to blood.

The fourth, poured on the sun, power was given him to scorch men with fire.

The fifth, poured out on the throne of the beast, and they gnawed their tongues because of the pain.

The sixth, poured out on the river Euphrates, and it's waters dried up, making way for the kings of the east. Then three spirits of demons were sent out to gather the kings of the world, gathered them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty.

15. "Behold I am coming as a thief. Blessed is he who watches and keeps his garments, lest he walk naked and they see his shame."

They gathered together at a place called Armageddon.

The seventh, poured out on the air, and a loud voice came out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, "It is done."

And there were noises and thunderings and lightnings, and there was a great earthquake, such a mighty and great earthquake as had not occurred since men were on earth.

Now the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. And great Babylon was remembered before God, to give her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of His wrath.

Then every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

And great hail from heaven fell upon men, each hailstone about the weight of a talent. (a talent is about a hundred pounds) Men blasphemed God because of the plague of hail, since that plague was exceedingly great. Revelation 16

You really must read the 17th chapter for yourself, perhaps even several times, for this chapter has a lot of information in it, particularly since it is a small chapter.

The seven heads on which the woman is sitting is seven mountains. The palace of Rome sat on seven hills or seven mountains. The Papacy was given the palace of Rome, and sits on the seven mountains. (17:9) Rome sat on seven mountains and was known as the seven hilled city.

There are also seven kings. Five have fallen, (Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, Persia, and Greece) one is, (Rome) (at the time this was written by John Rome was in power.) one is yet to come, (the Papacy) Babylon the harlot. (the papacy ruled over kings for about 1260 years.) (17:10)

The beast that was, and is not, is himself also the eighth, and is of the seven, and is going to perdition. (perdition means destruction) (17:11)

The seventh is no longer in power, ruling over kings, and the eighth is yet to come. The eighth is soon to come to power. I don't believe that this is very far off. I believe that this will happen during this generation. I believe that it is going to happen within the next few years. I'm surprised that science has not spotted the asteroids or comets heading towards the earth already.

Could it be that they are up there real close but they are not headed towards the earth at this moment. Maybe out just cruising along waiting for the finger of God to guide them to their destination. This would of course, explain why science is not concerned with them. Perhaps there are two bodies moving along out there on a collision course with each other, then they collide and change course towards earth, sending a heavy shower of smaller fragment in advance of them. This is not a prediction, it is just an idle thought on how my God might perform such a magnificent feat. I do have to say this, that it is going to be the most awesome sight that has ever happened on this earth. It is really something to sit and think of the many things that my God is capable of doing, even if it is not His plan I know that He can do it should He want to. He created and put into motion the entire universe on a span of five. Reach out your hand and spread your fingers and see how much you can calculate. Amazing isn't it! I think that while with one hand He was placing the ring around Saturn, and with the other He was putting the detail into the tip of a humming birds feather, or polishing the claw on the leg of a tiny insect.

Science is always working hard to reproduce the things that God has created, and man is building finer and faster and more power machines to go deeper and deeper into space. Are they building their own tower of Babel?

I have already stated that I believe that the mark of the beast will be a computer chip, which will create the cashless system, and will include the whole world. I want to bring up some of the things that are discussed by those that believe that Sunday worship will be the mark of the beast.

How did we get to the point of Sunday worship in the first place. There's not one scripture in the Bible that tells us to change from Saturday, the Sabbath, or the seventh day, to Sunday, the first day of the week.

The fourth commandment in God's law states, "Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy." Exodus 20:8

Jesus said in his sermon on the mount, "Do not think that I came to destroy the Law or the prophets. I did not come to destroy but to fulfill."

"For assuredly, I say to you till heaven and earth pass away, one jot or one tittle will by no means pass from the law till all is fulfilled."

Again He said, "And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one tittle of the law to fail." Luke 16:17

"Some non-Catholic's object to purgatory because there is no specific mention of it in scripture. There is no specific mention of the word Sunday in scripture either. The Sabbath is mentioned, but Sabbath means [a keeping of] Saturday. Yet the Christians of almost all denominations worship on Sunday not on Saturday. The Jews observe Saturday. Nowhere in the Bible is it stated that worship should be changed from Saturday to Sunday." Martin J. Scott, Things Catholic's are Asked About, 1927, p.236 [Roman Catholic]

"Ques...- How prove you that the Church hath power to command feast and holidays? Ans.- By the very act of changing the Sabbath into Sunday, which protestants allow of [by observing it], and therefore they fondly contradict themselves by keeping Sunday strictly, and breaking most other feast commanded by the same church." Priest Henry Tuberville, An Abridgment of the Christian Doctrine, p.58 [Roman Catholic]

"It's quite clear that however rigidly or devotedly we may spend Sunday, we are not keeping the Sabbath. The Sabbath was founded on a specific, divine command. We can plead no such command for the observance of Sunday. There is not a single line in the New Testament to suggest that we incur any penalty by violating the supposed sanctity of Sunday." Dr. R. W. Dale, The Ten Commandments, p. 106-107 [British Congregationalist]

"The Roman [Catholic] Church.. Reversed the Fourth Commandment by doing away with the Sabbath of God's Word, and instituting Sunday as a holiday." Nicholas Summerbell, History of the Christian Church, 3rd edition, 1873, p 415 [Christian Church (Christian Connection)]

"There is no word, no hint in the New Testament about abstaining from work on Sunday. The observance of Ash Wednesday, or Lent, stands exactly on the same footing as the observance of Sunday. Into the rest of Sunday no divine law enters." Canon Eyton, The Ten Commandments [Presbyterian]

"And where are we told in the scriptures that we are to keep the first day at all? We are commanded to keep the seventh, but we are nowhere commanded to keep the first day. The reason why we keep the first day of the week holy instead of the seventh is for the same reason that we observe many other things, not because the Bible, but because the church. has enjoined [commanded] it." Issac Williams, Plain Sermons on the Catechism, vol.1, pp. 334-336 [Anglican]

"God says without distinction, 'Remember that you observe the seventh day'... Concerning Sunday it is known that men have instituted it.. It is clear however, that you should celebrate the seventh day." Andres Karlstadt, Concerning the Sabbath and Commanded Holidays. 1524, chap.4 pp.23-24 [Karlstadt was a co-worker with Martin Luther at Wittenberg].

Perhaps we will have to wait yet a little longer to know for sure what is the mark. I do believe that they want to be in total control of every one, and the mark will be will be implemented to identify that they have accomplished this. It will be something that you will have to accept or refuse, and when you accept it or refuse it you will know well what you are doing. You will not be able to use the excuse later that you didn't know what you were doing. I'm certain that we will all be well aware, when the time comes, of what we are doing. If Sunday worship is to be the mark then it will have to be made into law, and it will have to be world wide.

What will be the mark? A Sunday law? A card or a chip? Or perhaps something else? The one thing that I do know it is mark that totally identifies that total and complete control has been imposed upon each individual person. Total domination or control can not be imposed until a person allows this to happen. You will choose which mark it is that you will wear. You will choose if you are going to follow Satan or if you will follow God. You will choose who will be your father or your God. The day of decision awaits all of us. While we are still innocent, we are not guilty of any sin against God, but the time will come when all will know, then all will make their decision as to what they plan to do. Some already know and have already made their decision, while others are innocent and do not know yet that they are breaking God's law. Before they are judged guilty, I believe that they will be shown the error of their ways, then they will have to make a positive decision as to what they want. Some will choose to follow God's law, because they love God more than the world. Many will choose the world, because all they can see are the things of the world, and they will not trust God for the things that they need.

I suppose that in actuality, we should not be concerned with what the mark is, so much as what we should be doing, or not be doing. What we are doing or not doing is what will bring about the mark in the first place. Considering this then perhaps the mark is only a spiritual mark any way. I don't believe that this will be the case, because the Bible says that the mark will be the mark of a man, or the number of a man. This sounds like something that will be seen and identified by all.

After Cain had killed his brother Able, God sent him out into the land of Nod, Cain was afraid and told God that everyone would want to kill him. God placed a mark on Cain so all would know that he was protected by God and all were to leave Cain safely alone. This had to be a mark that everyone knew and understood. I think that the mark of the beast and the mark of God, or the seal of God, will be seen by all and identified by all.

Considering the statements that I have quoted here as well as the paper, "A Statement by the Church of Rome", Which I am going to attach with this, and I hope that every one has a Bible handy, and looking up all the scriptures that have been quoted, I believe that it should be very clear to every one that God has not changed the fourth commandment. It should also be clear as to who did change the commandment of God.

However it does not positively mean that it is the mark of the beast. The Roman Church (Babylon) has changed this commandment as well as changing many other things. The second commandment was not exactly changed, it was just eliminated, or taken completely out to serve their purpose.

The sixth commandment was totally forgotten about when abortion was legalized. The United States (the two horned lamb beast) as well as a very large part of the rest of the world now have legal abortion laws, some have mandatory abortion.

The United States as well as many other countries are promoting the Homosexual life style as an alternative life style. This is an abomination to God. Many of the churches are electing to have homosexual pastors as well as other positions in the church. The Bible says this is an abomination. There are many more things that man is trying to change that go against God and God's word. I don't think that you would want to say that any of these are going to be the mark of the beast. They are certainly, every one of them, tools used by the beast to turn us all away from our God and Father, the creator of all things. This is control! At least it is control when you can make it work. It is working!

The next step is to mark us or as many of us as he can mark. The mark is an extremely serious thing. If the mark is to be a chip placed under the skin of the forehead or the hand, then this will give them ultimate control. Control that they did not have when Rome set out to exterminate all Christians. When the Roman Empire was in power, the Christians were able to hide in the catacombs beneath Rome as well as other places in the area. When you are implanted with this chip there will be no place that you can hide. The chip will place you under their total control, it will tell where you are at all times as well as what you are doing. You will not be able to buy nor sell without it. Once you have it you cannot do any thing without them knowing about it including worshipping God when you choose. I believe that this will mean complete and total control.

God is an omnipotent God. He knows every minute of every day exactly what we are doing at all times. He does not force us to do any thing, He has given us a freedom to choose what we want, yet He could have taken complete control had He wanted to. His choice is, and His desire is, for us to make Him our God, of our own free will.

I believe that it is His will that we obey His commandments, all ten of them, and He will forgive us when we make a mistake and realize we have done so and go to Him. God loves us and all that He ever wanted was for us to make Him our God and then He would make us His people, and dwell with us forever. God knows us and He never expected us to be perfect, but only to make Him our God and love Him with all our heart, our mind and our soul, and for us to love each other as He loved us. If we fulfill these two commandments we have obeyed the ten. The first one to love God with all our heart, our mind and our soul, covers the first four commandments and the second to love our neighbor as our own self covers the remaining six.

Perhaps a Sunday law will be the mark of the beast and perhaps it will be a chip, or maybe it will be both of them, then again maybe it will be neither, and perhaps it will be something else. One thing I know for sure, as long as we obey God's commandments and continue to love Him, and do not allow any one to force us or allow any one to mislead us and take us away from our goal, either by force or persuasion, we will surely win the victory. God loves us and He will help us as we go along the way. He will hold our hand and pick us up if we fall, or even carry us if need be. All we need do is love and trust Him and humble ourselves before Him. We need to make Him our pilot instead of our co-pilot.

James William Gribble

A Statement By The Church Of Rome

"I am going to propose a very plain and serious question, to which I would entreat all who profess to follow 'the Bible and the Bible only' to give their most earnest attention. It is this: Why do you not keep holy the Sabbath day?

The command of Almighty God stands clearly written in the Bible in these words: 'Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work; but the Seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work' (Exodus xx, 8,9). And again, 'Six days shall work be done; but on the seventh day there shall be to you an holy day, a Sabbath of rest to the Lord; whosoever doeth work therein shall be put to death. (Exodus xxxv, 2,3). How strict and precise is God's commandment upon this head! [in this matter!] No work whatever was to be done on the day which He had chosen to set apart for Himself and to make holy. And, accordingly, when the children of Israel 'found a man that gathered sticks upon the Sabbath day,' 'the Lord said unto Moses, The man shall surely be put to death; all the congregation shall stone him with stones without the camp' (Numbers xv. 35). Such being God's command then I ask again, Why do you not obey it? Why do you not keep holy the Sabbath day?

You will answer me, perhaps, that you do keep holy the Sabbath day; for that you abstain from all worldly business, and diligently go to church, and say your prayers, and read your Bible at home, every Sunday of your lives.

But Sunday is not the Sabbath day. Sunday is the first day of the week; the Sabbath day is the seventh day of the week. Almighty God did not give a commandment that men should keep holy one day in seven; but He named His own day, and said distinctly, 'Thou shalt keep holy the seventh day,' and He assigned a reason for choosing this day rather than any other- a reason which belongs only to the seventh day of the week, and cannot be applied to the rest. He says, 'For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea and all that in them is, and rested on the seventh day; wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day and hallowed it' [Genesis 2:1,3]. Almighty God ordered that all men should rest from their labor on the seventh day, because He too had rested on that day: He did not rest on Sunday, but on Saturday. On Sunday, which is the first day of the week, He began the work of His creation, He did not finish it; it was on Saturday that He "ended His work which He had made; and He rested on the seventh day from all His work which He had made; and God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it, because that in it He had rested from all His work which God had created and made' (Genesis ii.2,3). Nothing can be more plain and easy to understand than all this; and there is nobody who attempts to deny it; it is acknowledged by everybody that the day which Almighty God appointed to be kept holy was Saturday, not Sunday. Why do you then keep holy the Sunday, and not

Saturday?

You will tell me that Saturday was the Jewish Sabbath, but that the Christian Sabbath has been changed to Sunday. Changed! but by whom? Who has authority to change an express commandment of Almighty God? When God has spoken and said, Thou shalt keep holy the seventh day, who shall dare to say, nay, thou mayest work and do all manner of worldly business on the seventh day; but thou shalt keep holy the first day in its stead? This is a most important question, which I know not how you can answer.

You are a protestant, and you profess to go by the Bible and the Bible only; and yet in so important a matter as the observance of one day in seven as a holy day, you go against the plain letter of the Bible, and you put another day in the place of that day which the Bible has commanded. The command to keep holy the seventh day is one of the ten commandments; you believe that the other nine are still binding; who gave you authority to tamper with the fourth? If you are consistent with your own principles, if you really follow the Bible and the Bible only, you ought to be able to produce some portion of the New Testament in which the fourth commandment is expressly altered. Let us see whether any such passage can be found. I will look for them in the writings of your own champions, who have attempted to defend your practice in this matter.

1. The first text which I find quoted upon the subject is this: 'Let no man judge you in respect of an holy day, or of the new moon, or of the Sabbath days' (Col.ii:16) [the ceremonial-sacrificial-yearly sabbaths of the leviticus 23, which were done away at the cross]. I could understand a Bible Christian arguing from this passage, that we ought to make no difference between Saturday, Sunday, and every other day of the week; that under the Christian dispensation all such distinctions of the days were done away with; one day was as good and as holy as another; there were to be no sabbaths, no holy days at all. But not one syllable does it say about the obligation of the Sabbath being transferred from one day to another.

2. Secondly, the words of St. John are quoted, 'I was in the spirit on the Lord's day' (Apoc. [Rev]i.10). Is it possible that anybody can for a moment imagine that here is a safe and clear rule for changing the weekly feast from the seventh to the first day? This passage is utterly silent upon the subject; it does not but [only] give us scriptural authority for calling some one day in particular [it does not even say which day] 'the Lord's day.'

3. Next we are reminded that St. Paul bade his Corinthian converts, 'upon the first day of the week, lay by them in store, that there might be no gatherings' when he himself came (1 cor. xvi.2). How is this supposed to affect the law of the Jewish Sabbath? It commands a certain act of almsgiving [at home] to be done on the first day of the week. It says absolutely nothing about not doing certain other acts of prayer and public worship on the seventh day.

4. But it was 'on the first day of the week' when the disciples were assembled with closed doors for fear of the Jews, and Jesus stood in the midst of them' (Johnxx.19). What is there in these facts to do away with the obligation of keeping holy the seventh day? Our Lord rose from the dead on the first day of the week, and on the same day at evening He appears to many of His disciples. Let protestants, if they will, keep holy the first day of the week in grateful commemoration of that stupendous mystery, the resurrection of Christ, and of the evidences which He vouchsafed to give of it to His doubting disciples; but this is no scriptural authority for ceasing to keep holy another day of the week which God had expressly commanded to be kept holy for another and altogether different reason.

5. But lastly we have the example of the apostles themselves. 'Upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight' (Acts xx.7) Here we have clear proof that the disciples heard a sermon on a Sunday. But is there not proof they had not done the same on Saturday also? (Acts 13:14.42-44, 16:12-13, 17:1-2, 18:1-4,11). Is it not expressly written concerning those early Christians, that they 'continued daily with one accord in the temple, breaking bread from house to house?' Actsii.46). And as a matter of fact, do we not know from other sources that, in many parts of the Church, the ancient Christians were in the habit of meeting together for public worship, to receive holy communion, and to perform the other offices, on Saturday? Again, then, I say, let protestants keep holy, if it will, the first day of the week, in order that they may resemble those Christians who were gathered together on that day in an upper room in Troas; [a Troas meeting on Sunday in Acts 20:7, just prior to a Miletus meeting on Tuesday in Acts 20:17-38, although no one keeps Tuesday sacred because of it]; but let them remember that this cannot possibly release them from the obligation of keeping holy another day which Almighty God has ordered to be kept holy, because on that day He 'rested from all His Work.'

I do not know of any other passages of holy scripture which protestants are in the habit of quoting to defend their practice of keeping holy the first day of the week instead of the seventh; yet surely those which I have quoted are not such as should satisfy any reasonable man, who looks upon the written word of God as they profess to look upon it, namely, as the only appointed means of learning God's will, and who really desires to learn and obey that will in all things with humbleness and simplicity of heart. It is absolutely impossible that a reasonable and thoughtful person should be satisfied, by the texts that I have quoted, that Almighty God intended the obligation of Saturday to be transferred to Sunday. And yet protestants do so transfer it, and never seem to have the slightest misgivings lest, in doing so, they should be guilty of breaking one of God's commandments. Why is this? Because they talk so largely about following the Bible and the Bible only, they are really guided in this matter by the voice of {Roman Catholic} tradition. Yes, much as they may hate and denounce the word {tradition}, they have in fact no other authority to allege for this most important change. The present generation of protestants keep Sunday holy instead of Saturday, because they received it as part of the Christian religion from the last generation, and that generation received it from the generation before, and soon backwards from one generation to another, by a continual succession, until we come to the time of the [so called] Reformation, when it so happened that those who conducted the change of religion [from Catholicism to protestantism] left this particular portion of Catholic faith and practice untouched.

But, had it happened otherwise, had some one or other of the 'Reformers' taken it into his head to denounce the observance of Sunday as a popish corruption and superstition, and to insist upon it that Saturday was the day which God had appointed to be kept holy, and that He had never authorized the observance of any other, all protestants would have been obliged, in obedience to their professed principle of following the Bible and the Bible only, either to acknowledge this teaching as true, and to return to the observance of the ancient Jewish Sabbath [the Bible Sabbath given by God at the creation, Gen.2:1-3,--2,000 years before there was a Jew], or else to deny that there is any Sabbath at all. And so, in like manner, any one at the present day who should set about, honestly and without prejudice, to draw up for himself a form of religious belief and practice out of the Written Word of God, must needs come to the same conclusion: he must either believe that the seventh day Sabbath is still binding upon men's consciences, because of the divine command, 'Thou shalt keep holy the seventh day,' or he must believe that no Sabbath at all is binding upon them. Either one of these conclusions he might honestly come to; but he would know nothing whatever of a 'Christian Sabbath' distinct from the Biblical Sabbath, [that is] celebrated on a different day, and observed in a different manner, simply because Holy Scripture itself nowhere speaks of such a thing.

Now, mind, in all this you would greatly misunderstand me if you supposed I was quarrelling with you for acting in this matter on a true and right principle, in other words, a Catholic principle (vis., the acceptance, without hesitation, of that which has been handed down to you by an unbroken tradition). I would not [then] tear from you a single one of those shreds and fragments of divine truth [Catholic truth] which you have retained. God forbid! They are the most precious things you possess, and by God's blessing may serve as clues to bring you out of that labyrinth of [protestant] error in which you find yourselves involved, far more by the fault of your forefathers three centuries ago [when in the Reformation they left Rome] than by your own. What I do quarrel with you for, is not your inconsistency in occasionally acting on a true principle [such as Roman Catholic Sunday keeping], but your adoption, as a general rule of a false one [your protestant refusal to accept the rest of Roman traditional teachings]. you keep the Sunday, and not the Saturday; and you do so rightly, for this was the practice of all Christians when protestantism began [in the sixteenth century, as Catholics think]; but you have abandoned other Catholic observances which were equally universal at that day, preferring the novelties introduced by the men who invented protestantism, to the unvarying tradition of above 1500 years [of Catholic teaching]. We blame you not for making Sunday your weekly holy day instead of Saturday, but for rejecting tradition [the sayings of Rome], which is the only safe and clear rule by which this observance [of Sunday] can be justified. In outward act we do the same as yourselves in this matter; we too no longer observe the Sabbath, but Sunday in its stead; but then there is this important difference between us, that we do not pretend as you do to derive our authority for so doing from a book [the Bible], but we [Catholics] derive it from a living teacher, and that teacher is the [Roman Catholic] Church. Moreover, we believe that not everything which God would have us to know and to do is written in the Bible, but that there is an unwritten word of God [the sayings of popes and councils and saints], which we are bound to believe and to obey....

We Catholics, then, have precisely the same authority for keeping Sunday holy instead of Saturday as we have for keeping every other article of our creed, namely, the authority of 'the Church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth' (1 Tim. iii.15); whereas you who are protestants have really no authority for it whatever; for there is no authority for it in the bible, and you will not allow that there can be authority for it anywhere else. both you and we do, in fact, follow [Catholic] tradition in this matter; but we follow it believing it to be a part of God's word, and the [Catholic] Church to be its divinely appointed guardian and interpreter. You follow it, denouncing it all the time as a fallible and treacherous guide, which often 'makes the commandment of God of none effect' (Matt.15:16)."

A Statement by the Church of Rome

"Why Don't You Keep Holy the Sabbath Day" pp.3-15, in the Clifton tracts, vol.4, published by The Roman Catholic Church in 1869, and released in the United States through the T.W. Strong Publishing Company of New York City.

Babylon 4

I found this on the net and felt compelled to add this as additional information. I hope that it is helpful to all.

Bill Gribble

A Time Line of Events and Dates

1700's - Illuminati (Adam Wieshaupt-Founder, Jesuit Priest and Freemason)

Illuminati name translated to "bearers of the light" - Lumen derived from Lucifer, ancient "angel of light" spoken of in the Old Testament.

1800's - Freemason/Illuminati Organizations:
Rothchild/Jacob Schiff

Nathan Rothchild vows to kill Czar of Russia and his family.

1900's - Illuminati: Rothchild/Cune, Loeb & Co. (Jacob Schiff/Rockerfellers)

1913 - Federal Reserve Act put into law by Rockerfellers on Dec. 24 1913. Only three congressmen were present as it was Christmas eve.

1913 - 16th Amendment (IRS TAXES) added to constitution.

1917 - Czar of Russia is killed by Bolshevik revolutionaries. Lenin, Trotsky and Stalin are financially backed by Jacob Schiff with 20M in gold (paid by Rothchilds/Illuminati)

1920 - League of Nations proposed by Woodrow Wilson.

1921 - Council on Foreign Relations (CFR) created by Rockerfellers/New York, deemed as Illuminatti Organization in U.S.

1921 - Royal Institute for International Affairs created by Rothchilds/London

1929 - Rothchild/Rockerfellers/Carnegie/Morgan (CFR) created stock market crash, Worldwide depression ensues.

1933 - President Roosevelt (CFR) declares U.S. bankrupt signs over U.S. monetary power to world bankers (Rothchild/Rockerfellers - Illuminatti)

1939 - Hitler invades Poland - financial backing by Rothchild/Warburgs/Krupps.

1939 - Rothchild companies financially backed both Hitler and Stalin for World War 2

1941 - U.S. enters W.W.2 (planned by Rothchild/Schiff/Rockerfellers/Roosevelt)

1945 - W.W.2 ends. U.N. created as a solution to war.

1950 - Land donated for U.N. Headquarters/New York by Rockerfellers

1950 - U.N. starts Korean war.

1959 - U.N. starts Vietnam war.

1963 - President Kenedy killed by one world conspirators News media reports only one gunman (Lee Harvey Oswald) 5 bullets found from different guns. Prime witnesses for multiple gunmen theory found dead or missing.

1963 - Jack Ruby kills Lee Harvey Oswald - Ruby dies in jail of mysterious illness.

1967 - Martin Luther King killed.

1968 - Bobby Kenedy Killed.

1971 - President Nixon (CFR) declares U.S. in state of emergency.

1973 - Nixon withdraws troops from Vietnam, bowing to extreme public pressure.

1973 - David Rockerfeller forms Trilateral Commission (TLC)/New York.

1976 - Jimmy Carter (CFR) elected - Zbignew Brzezinski (CFR/TLC) appointed National Security Advisor. Five other high level members of presidents staff all members of CFR/TLC 1977 - Carter signs U.N. Charter removing U.S. sovereignty under U.N. military command.

1977 - Benjamin Creme publishes books and speaks publicly about Maitreya, the new age Christ returning to earth.

1981 - Congressman Larry McDonald calls for comprehensive congressional investigation of the CFR and TLC. Congress is urged to investigate these organizations.

1983 - Larry McDonald is killed along with 268 other passengers on Korean Air Lines (KAL) flight 007, shot down over Sakhalin Island in Sea of Japan. All bodies recovered, except the bodies of the pilot and copilot. Some of the extremely suspicious information regarding KAL 007 include:

1 - Flight was off course with plenty of fuel. Commercial flights commonly take a short cut over Sakhalin when low on fuel. Radio response in Russian air space commonplace with Russian pilots monitoring path of commercial planes.

2 - Russian pilots radioed KAL 007 with no response from pilot.

3 - Russian pilots fired warning shots with visible tracers past cockpit, pilots did not acknowledge warning shots or tracers.

4 - Two parachutes were seen by inhabitants of Aleutian islands prior to plane being shot down.

5 - Flight recorder recovered by U.S. submarine, data classified by CIA.

1983 - Andropov (USSR) dies of mysterious illness, Chernenko appointed.

1984 - Chernenko dies, Gorbachev appointed USSR Secretary General.

1985 - Gorbachev introduces Glasnost and perestroika to USSR.

1986 - Chernobyl (Wormwood) nuclear disaster. USSR request massive aid from the USA and Germany. Public opinion of USSR swayed.

1988 - George Bush (CFR/TLC/Free Mason) elected president.

1989 - Berlin wall falls - East Germans pour into west Germany. U.S. military is regarded as "obsolete" by media organizations.

1990 - UN starts Gulf War. President Bush verbally announces a "New World Order" on TV.

1991 - Fake coup attempt of Gorbachev in Soviet Union. Yeltsin named leader.

1991 - Yeltsin elected president of Russia. Crisis in Bosnia develops. Russia is now seen as U.S. ally and friend. Disarmament of U.S. military technology starts.

1992 - Bill Clinton (CFR/TLC) elected president. Orders U.S. military base closures. Orders gays to be allowed into the military/raises taxes/implements NAFTA/signs bill allowing U.S. troops to be under UN command. Sends U.S. overseas to Bosnia, Somalia, Germany and Peru. Begins dismantling military equipment and bases in U.S. Signs bills allowing illegal house to house search and seizure, signs bill removing our 2nd amendment rights, proposes national computer ID via health care card, signs bills allowing wire taps of any phone/modem/or fax. Proposes clipper chip on computers to allow tracking of data by government. Allows Russian and East German military equipment to be brought on U.S. soil.

1992 - Los Angeles riots started from incident on Florence and Normandy. Many buildings professionally torched in a very logical, military - style action. National Guard called out. Citizens introduced to FEMA organization as friend and ally to the public. Citizens take up arms to protect their own business, and are ARRESTED BY FEDERAL AGENTS. media portrays event as gang created and instills great fear in public. Gang leaders claim no responsibility for building torchings - not publicized in media.

1993 - Gorbachev starts Gorbachev Foundation USA in Presidio in San Francisco. Starts developing plans and strategies to disassemble all US military weaponry.

1993 - BATF and FBI agents flood branch Davidian compound in Waco Texas with C.S. gas - purported to be only "tear gas" (when C.S. gas is ignited, it becomes cyanide gas) 75 men women and children KILLED. Subsequent cover-up by Attorney Janet Reno, FBI, BATF, and CIA. Linda Thompson releases video showing BATF agents setting fire to compound with exhaust from rear of tank. Building ignites all CS gas inside, killing everyone. Media portrays David Koresh as madman cult leader and ruthless killer.

1993 - Russian and Nepalese Gurkha combat troops begin military maneuver and training exercises on US soil. US citizens are alarmed but are regarded as "radical extremist" 1994 - Clinton, OOPS, Clinton proposes National Health Care. National ID card would be required.

1994 - H.R. 666 passed by congress allowing illegal search and seizure.

1994 - NAFTA implemented allowing US and Asian Manufactures to have plants in Mexico, where wages are controlled at poverty level and environmental requirements are not controlled or monitored.

1994 - GATT agreement signed and implemented.

1994 - Vladimir Zhirinovsky gains popularity in Russia based on his ultra nationalist platform. Zhirinovsky plan to take back all former Russian territories including Poland, Finland and Alaska and also plans a warm water sea port for Russia in the Indian ocean. In his book "Last Dash To The South", Zhirinovsky states that when he becomes the new leader of Russia, he will pile up nuclear waste on the border of Lithuania and blow the radioactive vapors over them so they will all die. He also claims he will send a group of nuclear submarines to circle underwater around Japan and "if they so much as 'chirp' he will nuke them". Many claim Zhirinovsky has knowledge of UN takeover of the United States which is why he claims in his book "that the USA will collapse and will be without food and many people will immigrate to Europe and Russia."

1994 - Zhirinovsky regarded by many Christians as prophetic world leader to arise out of the east. Many claim that his birthplace in Alma Ata, Khazakhstan is purported to be the land of "Magog" described in the bible. His name (Vladimir) in Russian means "Ruler of the world" and his middle name (Wolfovich) means "son of a wild canine". Zhirinovsky regarded as the New World Order version of Hitler or Stalin.

1994 - Various patriot and militia groups formed in USA, regarded as "psychos" and "kooks" by media. Militia of Montana distributes tapes and literature regarding New World Order movement. Linda Thompson forms American Justice Federation and distributes literature and videos showing Russian military equipment on US soil and UN controlled "concentration camps" complete with gas chambers, being constructed in Indiana. Linda exposes UN black helicopters on video tape. Her family is then continually harassed and UN helicopters fly over her office and home.

1994 - Mark Koernke from Michigan distributes tapes and videos on militia movements, the New World Order and UN takeover of the US. Michigan militia holds meetings.

1995 - UN black helicopters spotted in many states and all over California.

1995 - InfoPet injectable transponder introduced as a way to monitor pets. Many Christian books and videos appear claiming that the injectable transponder is actually the "Mark of The Beast" prophesied in the book of Revelation.

1995 - Bob Fletcher (former toy manufacturer, testified in Iran/Contra hearings, now currently working with militia of Montana) produces video in February of 95 complete with actual video footage describing in great detail the New World Order Movement, world socialism, UN takeover of the United States, the CIA involvement in the New World Order clandestine operations, injectable transponders, black helicopters and concentration camps in the United States. Bob Fletcher has multiple attempts made on his life, resulting in hospitalization and intensive care.

1995 - Federal building in Oklahoma City bombed. Government suggests possible link to patriot militia groups. Patriot groups claim government conspiracy relating to bombing. Government discredits and begins media assault on patriot organizations and militia groups.

1995 - Uni-bomber strikes 2 days after the Federal Building was bombed. Media does "blitz" on militia groups trying to portray them as dangerous and possibly behind these bombings. Prime Time Live, 20/20 and Nightline all carry cover stories of militia organizations attempting to portray them as dangerous bunch of "kooks" and "paranoid - right - wing paramilitary" organizations. NBC, CBS and ABC simultaneously carry stories on local militia organizations in an attempt to scare the public.

1995 - President Clinton and Bob Dole sign bills enabling 1,000 more federal anti-terrorist agents and also implement tough new "anti-terrorist" legislation. Public opinion is swayed by Oklahoma and Uni-bomber bombings to allow more freedoms to be taken away in favor of "tougher anti-terrorist" laws. Some patriot groups claim both bombings were created by the New World Order movement to scare the US public into accepting greater anti-gun control and greater anti-terrorist Federal control

Reprinted from the 5/30/95 issue of Contact.

Contact Inc
P.O. Box 27800
Las Vegas, NV 89126
1-805-822-9655

The spelling of Clinton with a K (Klinton) earlier where I added the oops, was my addition and was not a part of Contact Inc.

Bill Gribble

Babylon 5 The Eighth World Power

By Bill Gribble

Everyone will be quick to admit that there is a power operating behind our government, as well as most all the other governments in the world. Who is this power? How did they gain such power? Where did they come from?

This power is of course international finance. This international finance is Jew dominated, however it is not only Jew. It is also financed and backed by many of the foundations that exist, such as Rockerfellow, Carnegie, and Kennedy Foundations and others as well. They plan the New World Government through monopolies and finance. If you haven't noticed, it is working. The "Why" of course is power and control.

How does it work? First they need a central bank to work through. It does not work when a government has control of it's own money, such as the U.S. had originally. We did have a central bank once back in the past, even though we were still in control of our gold and our money, this was gaining too much power and it was abolished. It was placed back into control when Woodrow Wilson was president and has been there since. As long as we have a central bank, that is controlled by international finance, we will never be free to operate as a free independent Republic like we started out. They have complete control over us. It matters not that we have a constitution, nor a bill of rights, we will always be like a puppet on a string and dance to their music and do what they say like good little slaves. When the constitution and the bill of rights get in their way they will just eliminate it. After all it is all ready null and void and only there for them to use for their convenience. Just try to use it for yourself when you need it, you'll see what I mean. It still works pretty good With certain racial or sexual situations, and of course it is used during some political arguments while forgotten during others. You know kind of like, here it is or there it was, or that means something else besides what it says.

Other means of control over the politicians are some of the organizations that I have mentioned in earlier parts of my paper and of course money. It takes a lot of money to become president. For this you become their puppet. The organizations serve to bend and develop their mind set to the direction that they want. These organizations serve to build prominence and stature and help to build position and the proper fame they will need to accomplish their goals and ambitions. It takes a lot to become president and you have to rub elbows with a lot of the right people. You also have to be like minded at least to a great extent. As an example, a libertarian could join one of these socialist, humanist groups, and with lots of elbow rubbing and socializing, he may be allowed to sweep the floors of the white house garage. Of course he would have to agree to castration and probably the removal of the tongue and maybe several other things.

You may not be aware that the Eastern European Jew, known as the Ashkenazim or "German Jew" is of Mongolian-Turkish- Jewish extraction. The Western European Jew, known as Sephardim, or Portuguese Jew, is regarded as purely Jewish in origin.

The Ashkenazim is what I want to talk about at this time. This is the Khazar or a descendent of the Khazars.

The Khazars were of Turkic - Mongolian decent who migrated to the Russian Steppes region. They were a powerful military kingdom, that existed from the early 7th century into the 11th century (650 - 1016). They were bordered by the Islamic Eastern Caliphate of Persia and the Christian Byzantine Empire.

They chose Judaism as their national religion to avoid being religiously dominated over by their powerful neighbors (which also avoids political domination). Also they could avoid being labeled as heathens without joining either of their powerful neighbors.

The Khazars were a powerful military force in the area until the 11th century. Their power base being the Crimean Peninsula. A near perfect defense base.

They ruled with a double kingship. One for military (Kagan) and a civil King (Bek). When I read this I was minded of a chess board. The King having limited movement, while the Queen had full mobility to go and do battle with the opposition. However the Khazars didn't use the King - Queen situation, but used two Kings to rule.

They defeated the eastern Caliphate in several key battles, which inherently halted the Islamic movement and made it safe for Eastern European Christianity. The emerging Rus (Russians) were also defeated and Kazaria collected tribute from the Rus and the Viking ships that used their waterways on their way to raid Persian cities along the coast of the Caspian Sea (Sea of the Khazars, or Khazar Sea).

They had strong ties with the Byzantine since the Empress Theodora of the Byzantine Empire was a Khazar princess given in marriage as a political alliance.

The King of the Khazars learned the Torah from the Jewish preacher Issac Sangari. He became a convert in the year 740, along with other Khazar nobles. Judaism gained prominence among the common people in the late 9th century. The soldiers in the Khazar army were Muslim and the Slavs, Bulgars, and other ethnic groups within the Khazar Empire were also not Jewish. By the 10th century the Khazars were fully practicing Judaism. The Hebrew language came into use in Kazaria.

Some sources of information are:

1. Arther Koestler. "The Thirteenth Tribe" This possibly has a lot of theory, yet Koestler was a Khazar.
2. "Khazarian. Hebrew Documents of the 10th Century" by Omeljan Pritsak and Norman Golb. Ithica, N.Y. Cornwell Univ. Press, 1982.
3. "The History of the Jewish Khazars" by D.M. Dunlop. New York. N.Y. Schocken Books, 1967

4. "Khazar Studies: An Historico - Philological Inquiry into the Origins of the Khazars" by Peter Golden, Budapest, Hungary Arkademial Kiado. 1980

The destruction of Khazria ended what was probably the best chance of re-establishment of the Jewish sovereignty of the Holy Land prior to 1948. Since a confederation of Khazarian and Sephardic Jews could have negotiated for, or purchased back, the Holy Land from its then Byzantium rulers.

Engravings of the Jewish Star of David were unearthed at two Khazar sites, one along the Danets River in Eastern Ukraine and the other along the Don River in Southern Russia. One was a circular metal disk, interpreted by professor Bozeman Werbart of Umea University as Jewish but seen by others as Shamanistic or Pagan. The Star of David may have first become a symbol of Jewish Nationalism in Khazaria.

After the defeat of Khazaria the Khazar people did not perish but migrated to Hungary, Romania, and Poland.

Encyclopedia Britannica, 9th edition, 1897 states that the Khazars are an historic figure upon the border - land of Europe and Asia for at least 900 years (190 - 1100 ad). The three hundred fifty years (600 - 950 ad) mark the epoch of their greatness, but their rise can be traced 400 years before and their decline for one hundred fifty years after. Their home was in the spurs of the Caucasus and along the shores of the Caspian - The "Sea of the Khazars"

Their King Joseph in answer to the inquiry of the Rabbi Chasdai Ibn - Skafrut of Cordova (c 958) stated that his people sprang from Thogarmah, Grandson of Japhet, and the supposed ancestor of the other peoples of the Caucasus.

There was a near complete history of Khazaria in the Encyclopedia Britannica, 9th edition, 1897, which I have not included here. This is a good source should you want more information on Kazaria and the Kazars.

The British Government published a White Paper (Russia No. 1, April, 1919) in which contained a report from M. Oudendyk, the Netherlands Minister at St. Petersburg, who was watching British interest during the Bolshevik Revolution. M. Oudendyk states: - "I consider that the immediate suppression of Bolshevism is the greatest issue now before the world, not even excluding the war which is still raging, and unless as above stated, Bolshevism is nipped in the bud immediately, it is bound to spread, in one form or another, over Europe and the whole world, as it is organized and worked by Jews, who have no nationality, and whose one object is to destroy for their own ends the existing order of things."

Through the use of money power, international Jew finance is now able to direct the internal and external policies of the governments of the states of Europe and also of America.

Bolshevism has opened the way to a Jewish industrialization of Russia and Siberia; it will deliver India and the far east into the hands of international finance.

International Finance, by it's support of Zionism, has obtained the power to exploit the vast resources of oil, chemicals and other substances in the lands to which Palestine is the outlet. By the same means, it has dumped into Palestine, the most sacred country in the world, thousands of Bolshevik Jews who would destroy all religions and who, from this strategic center, are engaged in propaganda, designed to draw Palestine, Egypt, the middle east, India and the far east, into the gigantic movement begun in Russia. Most of which has been accomplished at this time.

Is the whole Jewish race to be condemned? Of course not. Jewish elements provide the driving force for both communism and capitalism for the material as well as spiritual ruin of this world. however all Jews are not Financiers, Zionist or Bolshevik.

It may be true that the fanatics who have committed the many, and only too well-authenticated acts of destruction and devilry are not fully aware of all they are doing. For, Bolshevism is but one of the several weapons employed by a small and very powerful group of men who lust for World Domination, to whose prototypes Christ pronounced the following indictment:

"Ye are of your father the devil, and the lust of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning and abode not in truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it."

This small group of men (Jews) has long exercised a hidden dictatorship over the affairs of Europe, America, and, to some extent, in Asia, by means of enslavement of national Governments, to what Herzl, the first leader of the Zionist organization, called "our terrible power of the purse"

Unless the power of this section of Jewry is checked by human or super-human means, the people of the world, whether Gentile or Jew, are doomed to slavery of body and soul.

These people are the followers of Satan, who is the Devil, and they have been given the kingdoms of the world, and all it's glory. These are the same that Satan offered Jesus, if He would bow down and do worship to him. Jesus, of-course, refused this and told Satan to get away from Him. These people did not refuse and were given all these things of the world. They are not the only ones for there are many who seek fame, money and power, that have sold their souls for these things. They come from all races and nations, they follow after this handful of men and do their bidding. They forsake all, including their own nations, for these people. If they were to forsake all, to this extent, for our Lord and savior then we would truly have peace on earth. As it is we will never know peace, till our Lord returns, for they all follow the Devil, who came to steal, kill and destroy.

As it is described in the Bible, That the dragon, who is the Devil or Satan, went after the children of God to persecute them and to kill them. This is exactly their plan.

which they have already deployed. To destroy both family and Christ are the main priorities of their plan. They have to break down all natural order of society to make their plan work. Remember that I have already stated that they were followers of Satan, who came to kill, steal and destroy.

This power is not only in the back ground ruling over our government, but they are controlling every leading nation in the world, as well as most of the smaller nations.

How can anyone gain this much power? It takes a lot of time, planning and money. It's hard to really say just when this movement started, but my guess is that it started just after the destruction of Khazaria. It may even have been in the works before their destruction. Khazaria was an extremely powerful nation. Allied with the Byzantine they were quite probably indestructible. To say the least they sure carried a big stick.

I don't know yet why the Byzantine switched from being allied with Khazaria and allied with the Rus, but they did, and after many, many years, somewhere around 400 years. The Khazars collected tribute from some thirty different nations around her. The Byzantine had even collected tribute from the peoples on the other side of her for Khazaria. It's well known that the tax (tribute) collector would most often become rich doing their job. Perhaps, and I don't know, the Byzantine realized the Khazar plan at that early day and set to stop them. Just a guess, but whatever the reason they switched their allegiance to the Rus and then the Rus was able to defeat her or at least push her back into such a small pocket she no longer had the power or carried the big stick. After the destruction of Khazaria the people migrated to Poland, Romania and Hungary. Many of them had already migrated to Russia and a lot stayed where they were at. These Khazars were something else. One was a ruler over Russia at one time and another was a Pope, and one was Emperor of Bizantium. Yes they were quite interesting.

In the migrations from their homeland it seems the most moved to the area of Poland. They were not placed in ghettos, like what was more common in other parts of the world, but instead were allowed to build villages and farm communities and were allowed to rule themselves. They transported their own crops in carts they had invented to the other towns. Before long they had a monopoly on farming as well as transportation. Synagogues appeared all over Poland even more abundant than the Christian churches of this Christian nation. So much so that it got the attention of the pope. The Teutonic Knights came in and war prevailed for many years. Poland it seems defeated the Knights eventually, yet they used them as mercenaries later.

During the war between the states. Which was our war for states rites, both the south and the north were financed by international finance. Was this their start here? It would seem so, but I'm not sure that it was part of their plan at that time but it does seem that way.

What is so dangerous about a central bank? A central bank is a means of control. When the U.S. controlled the money we had a gold reserve to cover the money that was printed. It stated on the bill that it was redeemable for the face value, in gold or silver. The money we have today has no real value. It is debt money. The central bank prints the money then loans the money out with interest due. This can never be paid back because the only money out there is the money loaned and not the excess needed to pay the interest. They also have the power to inflate or deflate the money. Both are dangerous to the economy. International finance controls the central banks and central banks control the bank chains as well as the smaller or independent banks. The banks do not have enough money to pay their depositors should they all want their money. Most of the money in the world is on paper and don't even exist. This is what debt money is. Money is printed, then loaned out with interest due, then re-loaned out with more interest due, putting it on paper and the banks don't have currency to protect itself. A run on the banks could cause an international economical collapse. They are all tied together so tightly it could happen. As a matter of fact this will likely happen about the middle of 1999, as people try to protect themselves from the Y2K bug. Some folks say that the bug is really no problem. Maybe it's not but most people think that it is and that could be the problem. An economical collapse would be extremely hard to recover from and the world would welcome the New World Government with open arms thinking that would mean a solution. You can believe this that their propaganda is going to be telling everyone that this is the solution. If everyone decides to protect their money at the same time you can well believe that there will be a problem. A major problem.

These people don't care what a nation's politics are as long as they control the money. When they control the money they can easily control the people. This also presents great profits. They have been working a long time to build their empire. It will not be long now and they will announce, officially that is, their new world government. Most know about it already, but they don't want to admit it. Some peoples lean towards socialism naturally, perhaps that is why they were so easily enslaved in the past.

Some of their prime people have been put into office before W.W.I and even more since.

Though many of our presidents through the years have done many things to destroy this nation, I believe that Woodrow Wilson did the most damage. The things he has accomplished has made all the rest possible.

The Council on Foreign Relations was incorporated in 1921. It is a private group headquartered at the corner of Park Ave. and 68th St. in New York City, in a building given them in 1929, by the Rockefeller Foundation.

The CFR's founder, Edward Mandell House, Had been the chief advisor of Woodrow Wilson. House was not only Wilson's most prominent aide, he actually dominated the president.

Woodrow Wilson referred to House as "my alter ego" (my other self), and it is totally accurate to say that House, not Wilson, was the most powerful individual in our nation during the Wilson administration, from 1913 until 1921.

Unfortunately for America, it is also true that Edward Mandell House was a Marxist whose goal was to socialize the United States. In 1912 he wrote the book, "Phillip Dru: Administrator". In it he said that he was working for Socialism as dreamed of by Karl Marx.

In Phillip Dru: Administrator, House laid out a plan for the conquest of America. He told of a conspiracy which would gain control of both the Democratic and Republican Parties, and use them as instruments in the creation of a socialistic world government.

The book called for passage of a graduated income tax and for the establishment of a state controlled central bank as steps toward the ultimate goal. Both became law in 1913 during the very first year of the House dominated Wilson administration. Both of these are planks in the communist manifesto.

The House plan called for the United States to give up its sovereignty to the League of Nations at the close of W.W.I. When the Senate refused to ratify America's entry into the League, Edward Mandell House's drive toward world government was slowed down. Disappointed, but not beaten, House and his friends then formed the Council on Foreign Relations, whose purpose right from its inception was to destroy the freedom and independence of the United States and lead our Nation into a world government, if not through the League of Nations then through another world organization that would be started after another world war.

From its beginning in 1921, the CFR began to attract men of power and influence. In the late 1920's, important financing for the CFR came from the Rockefeller Foundation and the Carnegie Foundation. In 1940, at the invitation of President Roosevelt, members of the CFR gained domination over the State Department, and they have maintained that domination ever since.

Richard N. Gardner, State Department veteran and Columbia University Professor, (CFR member) admitted that a leap into an organization like the United Nations would be a mistake. He called for an end run around national sovereignty, eroding it piece by piece. That means an end to our nation's sovereignty.

He named as organizations to accomplish his goal the International Monetary Fund, the World Bank, the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, the Law of the Sea Conference, the World Food Conference, the World Population Conference, disarmament programs, and a United Nations military force. This approach, Gardner said "can produce some remarkable concessions of sovereignty that could not be achieved on an across-the-board basis".

Unfortunately, the CFR is not the only group proposing an end to the sovereignty of the United States. In 1973 another organization, which thoroughly dominated the Carter administration, saw the first light of day. Also based in New York City, this one is called the Trilateral Commission.

The Trilateral Commission's roots stem from the book "Between Two Ages" written by Zbigniew Brzezinski in 1970. The following quotations from that book show how closely Brzezinski's thinking parallels that of Edward Mandell House.

1. "Marxism is simultaneously a victory of the external, active man over the inner, passive man and a victory of reason over belief".

2. "Marxism, disseminated on the popular level in the form of communism, represented a major advance in man's ability to conceptualize his relationship to the world".

3. "Marxism supplied the best available insight into contemporary reality".

No where does Mr. Brzezinski tell his readers that the Marxism "in the form of communism", which he praises, has been responsible for the murder of approximately 100 million people in the twentieth century, has brought about the enslavement of over a billion more, and has caused want, privation and despair for all but the few criminals who run the communist dominated nations.

There's nothing wrong with any president relying on the advice of others in the selection of his top assistants. What is vitally important is whose advice is being followed, what type of individuals are named to the positions, and what they do with the power given them.

I should not have surprised to find out what I have learned of the Khazars, for they are talked about in the Word of God. The name is not mentioned but they are certainly talked about. After the flood Noah became a farmer and he planted a vineyard. After drinking the wine, made from the grapes of the vineyard, Noah became drunk and fell asleep and was uncovered in his tent. Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brothers.

But Shem and Japheth took a garment, laid it across their shoulders, and went backwards and covered their father's nakedness.

So Noah awoke from his wine, and knew what his younger son had done to him.

Then he said "Cursed be Canaan; A servant of servants he shall be to his brethren".

And he said "Blessed be the Lord, The God of Shem, And may Canaan be his servant.

May God enlarge Japheth, and may he dwell in the tents of Shem; And may Canaan be his servant". Genesis. 9.

When a true man of God makes a curse or a blessing before God you had better watch out. All these things have come to be. It may have taken a while but they have happened. First the children of Israel, when God brought them out of Egypt, and after forty years to allow the disobedient older generation to die, God lead them into Canaan and the children of Canaan were destroyed or enslaved.

Today the Askenazim, or Kazar Jew numerously out number the Sephardim Jew. Japheth has not only been enlarged, but he now dwells in the tent of Shem. Remember he may have converted to Judaism, but he can't become a child of Israel.

In the book of Revelation, in the description of the woman and the beast, chapter 17. He states "the beast that was, and is not, is himself also the eighth, and is of the seven, and is going into perdition".

Here we have a description of the Kazar. Was, is not, and one of the seven. I think that I've discussed this before in parts anyway. Was, he was accepted as a Jew. Is not, he is of the family of Japheth, and not of the family of Shem. One of the seven, yes he was one of the seven. I wrote about that already too. He was allied with Byzantium. Byzantium was the eastern section of Rome where Constantine moved his capital to. He was never defeated by Rome, but rather he was allied with them.

Some might argue that the Khazar descended Ashkenaz, while others will argue that they descended from Togarmah. I can't see a lot of difference, since they were both the grandsons of Japheth, and brothers. Both arguments may be right.